

END-OF-TERM TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Andy: Hey Kate.
- Kate: Hey Andy. How was your night?
- Andy: It was pretty good. I went to the movies with Sarah. We saw this movie called Kite Maker.
- Kate: Oh nice. I wanna see that. How was it?
- Andy: Not bad. But the tickets were a little expensive.
- Kate: Really? How much did they cost?
- Andy: Thirty dollars.
- Kate: Thirty dollars? What theater did you go to?
- Andy: There's a really nice, luxury theater on Jay Street. And the movie was 3D.
- Kate: Well, I'm not going to go to that theater anytime soon. What else is new?
- Andy: I just signed up for an Italian class. I'm going to study French this summer.
- Kate: Oh nice. Are there many French classes in this city?
- Andy: No. There are only a few. But everyone says that this one is really good. Can you speak any other languages?
- Kate: No, I can't. I want to, but I don't have a lot of time. What about you?
- Andy: I can speak Spanish. There are a lot of Spanish classes in the city. You can take one.
- Kate: Maybe I will. Do they have night classes?
- Andy: There are some classes at night, yes.
- Kate: I'm going to read more about it. Thanks. Anyway, where are we going to go for lunch?
- Andy: French food?
- Kate: Sure. You can start to practice your French at the restaurant.
