- Mother: How did it happen?

- Karen: We ran to the car and helped the mother and son get out.
- Mother: Who called the police?
- Simon: I did. The woman gave me her phone.
- Mother: Well done. How long did the police take to arrive?
- Karen: About five minutes.
- Simon: No, two minutes.
- Karen: Yes, they were very fast.
- Simon: An ambulance took the mother and her son to the hospital.
- Karen: Then the police came to us.
- Mother: What did they ask you?

- Simon: They wanted us to describe the accident.
- Karen: They talked to Mr. Brown, too.
- Mother: Was it his car?
- Karen: No, it wasn't. It was his daughter's.
- Simon: It was a new car and he was angry.
- Karen: Look. There's a lot of damage.
- Mother: Yes, there is. Both have big dents.
- Simon: They need to go to the auto repair shop.
- Mother: Well, come inside now kids. The police need to write a report.
