

UNIT 10 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

Lamar: Erica. Erica... Erica! Wake up!

Erica: Ehh, huh, what. Oh, hi, Lamar. Are we there yet?

Lamar: Yea, we are almost at the station. You were asleep for the whole trip. How did you sleep?

Erica: Huh? Oh, yea. It felt great. I was so tired. Anyway, I had another unusual dream about my teeth falling out.

Lamar: Oh, really? What happens in the dream?

Erica: Well, I have this same dream pretty often. I am at work in the same meeting with my boss, and our colleagues, Marcus and Tanya. When it's my turn to speak, I start speaking, but then my teeth fall out of my mouth. It's so weird.

Lamar: Yea, that is strange. What happens after that?

Erica: Well, I try to speak, but I can't because my mouth is full of my teeth. No words come out of my mouth. Just my teeth. A lot of teeth. Then I usually wake up. What do you think it means?

Lamar: I don't think anyone knows for sure. But I heard it can mean that you talk a lot. Like you think that you talk too much.

Erica: Well, I do like to talk a lot.

Lamar: You do. And you also talk about very private things. Sometimes these are things that others do not want to hear or know about. Maybe your dream means don't talk about private things.

Erica: Yea, maybe that's it. Or maybe I think that I need to brush my teeth more.

Lamar: Yep. It could mean that, too! Well, we've arrived at the station. Time to get off.
