

UNIT 15 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Carol: Hi, Evrim, remember me? We met in Turkey but studied at the same university in 2004.
- Evrin: Good to hear from you, Carol! Wow, that was a long time ago. How are you nowadays?
- Carol: I'm fine but very busy. I'm working for a college in the U.S. and traveling to Taiwan to talk with students this week. I'm going to the airport tonight, actually. How about you?
- Evrin: I'm living in Canada these days. I'm taking business classes and working part-time at a hotel.
- Carol: That sounds great. How do you like your new life?
- Evrin: It is much better than before. Do you remember where I lived in the past?
- Carol: Yes, I think you worked in Russia and helped build hotels, is that right?
- Evrin: Right. Before that, I worked in Afghanistan for almost three years.
- Carol: That is very tough! I'm glad you're enjoying Canada now. How are your classmates?
- Evrin: They are really nice. A lot of students are helping each other study. I'm making many friends here. I hope you can visit in the future. You can stay with me.
- Carol: If I need to travel to Canada for work, I will definitely text you!
