

UNIT 16 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Brian: Hi, Khalsa, are you feeling OK? You were not in class today.
- Khalsa: Thanks for calling, Brian. My allergies are making me feel sick, so I decided to stay home.
- Brian: OK, I am emailing you my notes from class. We're starting another chapter in the book. There is a lot of new information.
- Khalsa: I don't like our professor! We are studying all the time! He doesn't give us a break or any time to relax.
- Brian: Yeah, our class is hard. But the professor is teaching us really well, so I think we are learning more than other students in other classes. I like that.
- Khalsa: I guess you're right. What's going on with everyone else in the class?
- Brian: Amir and Jackie are calling other classmates to start a study group. I'm going to join them. Can you come?
- Khalsa: I don't know. I'm sneezing and coughing and even crying. My eyes are really red and watery. I don't think I can leave the apartment tonight.
- Brian: We're not meeting tonight. Probably tomorrow. Let me know how you are feeling tomorrow. Join us if you can. We are reviewing the notes from class and discussing the homework.
- Khalsa: OK, that sounds good. I can come. I'm staying online all night, so email me if there are any updates about what time everyone is meeting.
- Brian: OK. Get better soon and see you tomorrow.
