

UNIT 17 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Minzhi: Hey, Alfred. What are you doing? Are you busy?
- Alfred: Hi, Minzhi. Nope, I'm just taking a break from work. I'm looking at Jake's website—he works as a photographer now. See his photos?
- Minzhi: Wow, he's very good! Are those his kids?
- Alfred: I think so. He has twins. I believe they're around four years old.
- Minzhi: Aww, they are so cute! Are they wearing costumes? I see the girls both have hats on their heads and are holding flowers.
- Alfred: Yeah, I guess it was from Halloween. Jake posted the photo at the end of October.
- Minzhi: Are you also on social media, Alfred?
- Alfred: No, not really. I worry about privacy. I like looking at other people's lives, but I don't feel comfortable when anyone online can see my life. I prefer sharing my updates with friends face-to-face or over the phone.
- Minzhi: I'm the opposite! I have a lot of social media accounts—Instagram®, Facebook®, Twitter®... I think it's easier to stay connected with people this way. Also, a lot of my family doesn't live close to me and they want to see updates all the time. I don't have time to call or text everybody.
- Alfred: That makes sense.
