

UNIT 20 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

Bill: What happened, Norma? You look upset.

Norma: I lost my necklace.

Bill: Oh, that's terrible. Where did you lose it?

Norma: I think I left it in the student center café. I reported it to the front desk, but they didn't have it.

Bill: Did it cost a lot?

Norma: No, it didn't, but it was valuable to me. It belonged to my grandmother. My mother gave it to me a few days ago.

Bill: When did you have the necklace last?

Norma: Well, I know I had it at lunch this afternoon.

[Norma's cell phone rings.]

Norma: Hello?

Mrs. Jackson: Hi. Is this Norma Damron?

Norma: Yes.

Mrs. Jackson: This is Alicia Jackson from the student center. I heard that you lost a necklace. We found one in the restroom at the student center. Did you lose your necklace there?

Norma: Oh, yes, that's right! Was it next to the sink?

Mrs. Jackson: Actually, it was on the restroom floor.

Norma: Thank you very much for calling!

Mrs. Jackson: You're welcome. You can pick it up at the front office in the student center.

Norma: Thank you!
