

UNIT 23 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Sofi: Taiki, will you go get us some food for dinner? I'm hungry. I'll never finish this report if I don't eat.
- Taiki: Of course, Sofi, I'll pick up something. What would you like?
- Sofi: It's pretty late. What'll be open? Chinese? Or the fast food place could be good.
- Taiki: Let's see...it will be 10 p.m. soon, so I don't think the Chinese restaurant will be open. How about pizza?
- Sofi: I think the pizza place closes early on Sundays, so we'll have to eat fast food.
- Taiki: Ehhh... I won't eat fast food—it's pretty unhealthy. And it won't be good for you while you're trying to do work. Don't you think something else will be better?
- Sofi: Taiki, you said that all the other places will be closed at this hour. I think fast food will be OK.
- Taiki: Let me think. OK, I'll go to the grocery store and pick up something. I'll come and make you some dinner. How about that?
- Sofi: It'll be open?
- Taiki: Yep. I just checked the store's website.
- Sofi: Oh, great. So, what'll you get?
- Taiki: I'll definitely buy some fruit. Maybe strawberries or apples?
- Sofi: OK. And...
- Taiki: Uhh. Some other fruits?
- Sofi: I think I'll need something more than that. How about some bread and cheese for sandwiches?
- Taiki: OK. I'll get some cheese and bread. I don't think they'll still have the good bread at this hour, but I'll check.

Sofi: Great. And I'll get back to work. Hurry home.

Taiki: Yep. Sofi, just one more thing.

Sofi: What's that?

Taiki: Do you have any money?

Sofi: No, I don't.

Taiki: Ehh... OK. Well, I think I'll also have to go to the ATM. See you soon.
