

UNIT 26 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Tanawat: So, Helen, what do we need for the party tonight? It looks like our fridge is empty.
- Helen: Well, we just got back from a trip. I think we need a lot of things, Tanawat.
- Tanawat: Yes. Let's think about food. What should we serve?
- Helen: Let's keep it simple. We'll make sandwiches and serve some snacks. Are you going to the store to get everything?
- Tanawat: Yes. OK, what kind of sandwiches do we want?
- Helen: Pick up some cheese, ham, chicken, and vegetables to put on the sandwiches.
- Tanawat: What kind of vegetables?
- Helen: Get some onions and tomatoes. Actually, get some lettuce, too. We can make a salad. Also, for the sandwiches, we don't have any bread. So get that, too.
- Tanawat: OK, got it. And snacks—what should I get?
- Helen: Just get some different kinds of chips and nuts. Actually, don't buy any nuts. Sam can't eat them.
- Tanawat: Sounds good. And do you want me to get any desserts?
- Helen: I actually asked Shelly to bring some ice cream, and I asked Brian to bring some cake. He makes delicious cakes. So I think we have enough dessert.
- Tanawat: OK, then the last thing: drinks. What do I need to get?
- Helen: I told people to bring their own drinks, but we may want to have something anyway. Maybe you can get some wine and soda?
- Tanawat: So, I don't need to buy a lot. Sounds good.
- Helen: Do we need any other things?
- Tanawat: Just money. Could you give me a few bucks?
- Helen: Here, take my credit card.
