

UNIT 9 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Oscar: Hey, Julianne. How're things going?
- Julianne: I'm doing well, Oscar. You're back from Los Angeles already. How was your trip?
- Oscar: It was great. And when I got home last night, my roommate made me dinner. It was delicious!
- Julianne: Wow. That's pretty cool.
- Oscar: Hey, how's your new roommate... ahh, I forgot her name.
- Julianne: Brianne. She's OK I guess. She's not around this week. And that's good.
- Oscar: Where did she go?
- Julianne: She went to London.
- Oscar: Is she from England?
- Julianne: No, she's actually from Canada. (pause) I don't think I like her though. She's really loud.
- Oscar: Really? That's too bad. Does she talk a lot and stay up all night?
- Julianne: No, she isn't talkative at all. She doesn't really say anything to me. I think it's a bit unusual. But she plays music really loudly in her room. And she usually does this at night while I am trying to study.
- Oscar: Wow. Why don't you ask her to play her music more quietly?
- Julianne: I'd like to, but she is difficult to talk to. Her room is also really messy and I hate to go in there.
- Oscar: I see. Are the kitchen and bathroom also dirty because of her?
- Julianne: No. She does the dishes and cleans our bathroom pretty well. She just doesn't talk much. It's strange.
- Oscar: I see that clearly bothers you. She's probably just a very private person.
- Julianne: Well, I want her to be a private person that plays quiet music!
