READING

PART 3

Read the conversation. Then choose the correct answers.

Kelly: Hi, Marc. It's good to see you back at school. How are you feeling now?

Marc: Hey, Kelly, I'm feeling much better. I'm sneezing less.

Kelly: Good. You were gone for a week! Are you still coughing?

Marc: No, I'm not coughing anymore. I'm resting a lot at home, but I have a lot of work I need to do. What are Jon and Ben working on?

Kelly: They're writing a report about student behavior. A few students are behaving rudely to other classmates, so Sarah asked Jon and Ben to solve this problem.

Marc: That's too bad, but I'm glad most of the students are great.

Kelly: Yeah, the class I'm teaching now is fun. What are you doing this week?

Marc: My class is reading a book and watching a movie with Sally and her class.

Kelly: A movie? That doesn't sound like work! Why are you doing that?

Marc: Sally and I are teaching American history, and the book and movie are for a test.

Kelly: Oh, I see! What are you reading and watching?

Marc: We are deciding between Lincoln and Gettysburg. I guess it will be a surprise!
