READINGPART 3*Read the article. Then answer the questions.

What will the year 2100 be like? Nobody can say for sure, but we know that the future will be different from today. Think about the year 1900. People did not travel in cars or on planes, most communication was through paper mail, and the idea of the computer was still 40 years away. One hundred years later, email and the Internet were the best way to communicate, and hundreds of millions of people traveled by plane and car every day. In 1900, people could not guess about the world in 2000. So, one can only imagine what 2100 will be like.

Many believe that the biggest changes will be in technology and medicine. They think that computers will be much faster in the year 2100, and will be able to solve the most difficult problems of science and math. Many also think that medicine will improve, and that will make us healthier. They think that the average person will be taller and also live longer. If people die at older ages, then there will be a lot more people in the world. So, many people also think that the world's population will be over ten billion people.

1 What is the main idea of the first paragraph?

- A The world changed a lot between the years 1900 and 2000.
- B The world will be different in 2100, but nobody knows how different.
- C The biggest change from 1900 to 2000 was the computer.

2 According to the article, why will the population increase?

- A because medicine will be easier to get
- B because people will live longer than now
- C because technology will help us live better
