Angelique

875 West 79th Street

212-555-0988

Angelique serves some interesting dishes. This new American restaurant mixes great flavors from all around the world. Some dishes are really extraordinary. The grilled blue fish has the right amount of spices and is always fresh. Some other delicious entrees are the Angelique steak, a huge steak served with mushrooms and potatoes, and the North American lamb dibi, a lamb dish from Africa that mixes American and African spices. Both dishes are a bit expensive but you will really enjoy them. The menu also has some dishes without meat for vegetarians. The Caribbean grilled vegetables with rice has a lot of flavor. The portions for the main courses are big, but there are also some good desserts on the menu if you are still hungry. Try the chocolate cake or the New York cheesecake.

Angelique is in an expensive part of the city, so it's not surprising that the prices at the restaurant are high. But you will be full when you leave the restaurant, so you get what you pay for. The restaurant is small and loud, so it's not the best place for conversation on a busy night. The restaurant does not take reservations. You may have to wait in a long line on a busy night. But the food and service are outstanding, so you'll be happy that you waited.
