

NAME _____ DATE _____

REVIEW TEST: UNIT 29GRAMMAR*PART 1*Choose the best advice for each sentence.

- 1 I have a very important test tomorrow.
 - A You should study this evening.
 - B You ought to go out to a party.
 - C You shouldn't read your notes.
- 2 I think my friend is worried about something.
 - A You should talk to your friend.
 - B You had better find a new friend.
 - C You ought to worry about the same thing.
- 3 I haven't been sleeping well this week.
 - A You should sleep at school.
 - B You ought to watch TV in bed.
 - C You shouldn't stay up at night.
- 4 I did badly on a test in science class.
 - A You had better stop going to class.
 - B You ought to ask the teacher for help.
 - C You shouldn't worry about your grades.
- 5 I ran a lot yesterday and now my legs hurt.
 - A You had better not run a lot today.
 - B You should play soccer today.
 - C You ought to go to the hospital today.
- 6 My stomach hurts at night.
 - A You shouldn't eat anything at dinner.
 - B You ought not to eat too much at dinner.
 - C You had better not go to sleep before midnight.

NAME _____ DATE _____

7 I'm always late to school.

- A You had better not go to school.
- B You ought to wake up early.
- C You should go to a different school.

PART 2Choose the correct answers to complete the paragraph.

Here are a few rules for doing business in Japan. Many businessmen in Japan do not speak English. You had better (1) get / to get / getting a translator who can speak Japanese. In Japan, people give each other business cards before they talk. You (2) should / ought not / had better not do business until you exchange business cards. The Japanese will read your card very carefully. You (3) should / shouldn't / ought read their cards as well and remember what they say. Also, Japanese people don't always say no directly. You (4) should say / had better not say / shouldn't say, "I will think about it" instead of "No." If you go out to eat, being polite is important. You (5) ought to / shouldn't / had better not talk loudly at the table. Japanese people eat quietly. Finally, when you go to someone's house, take off your shoes near the door. You ought not (6) wear / to wear / wearing your shoes inside.

NAME _____ DATE _____

READINGPART 3*Read the article. Then choose the correct answers.*Global Business

Different people around the world have different ways of doing business. You should learn how to act in different countries. You don't want to lose a deal because you make a mistake. Here are a few suggestions for business people headed for Russia or India. Let's start with Russia.

First, greeting people is different in Russia. You should not call people by just their first name. You should not use their last name either. At work, Russians use both the first name and middle name together. For example, they say "Ivan Ivanovich" instead of just Ivan. They usually do not say Mr. or Mrs., either.

Russians will take you out for a big business lunch. However, you should not talk about business at lunch. They will ask you questions about your family and your hobbies. You should talk to them and eat a lot. It shows you are happy and relaxed.

Now let's turn to India. In India, you should plan meetings a long time in advance. You ought to write a letter to everyone you want to meet a few months before you go. Then you had better confirm the meeting by phone a week or two before the meeting. Meetings always start with friendly conversation. You can talk about hobbies or interests, but you should not ask personal questions.

If you're invited for a meal, you should eat with your right hand. If you eat everything on your plate, your host will serve you more food. You had better not refuse, but you don't have to eat it all. When you are full, just stop eating. In a restaurant, let the host pay or you might insult them.

These are just a few dos and don'ts when doing business in Russia and India. Before you go to any country, you should read about the culture. That way, your business will go well!

- 1 What should you talk about at a business lunch in Russia?
 - A your work experience
 - B the business deal
 - C your personal life
- 2 In India, you should write people you want to meet _____ before the meeting.
 - A a few days
 - B a few weeks
 - C a few months
- 3 When you eat in India, what should you do to show you are full after a meal?
 - A Ask the waiter for the bill.
 - B Tell your host not to serve you.
 - C Leave some food on your plate.

NAME _____ DATE _____

LISTENINGPART 4*Listen to the conversation. Then choose the correct answers.

- 1 Why does Ali want to talk to Daniela?
 - A She is from Brazil.
 - B She is a tour guide.
 - C She is a chef.

- 2 Why does Ali want to go to São Paulo?
 - A to try the food
 - B to go the rainforest
 - C to see some friends

- 3 According to Daniela, how should Ali travel from Rio to the Amazon?
 - A by bus
 - B by boat
 - C by plane

- 4 What is Daniela's favorite food?
 - A French fries
 - B cheese bread
 - C beans and rice

- 5 What is impolite to do in Brazil?
 - A listening to loud music
 - B eating with your hands
 - C talking to strangers

NAME _____ DATE _____

SPEAKING

PART 5

Imagine you have a friend who wants to visit your country or a country you know well. Give your friend some advice for visiting the country. Use should (not), ought (not), or had better (not) to give advice. Use the questions below as a guide.

- What places should they visit?
- What activities should they do there?
- What should they eat?
- How should they act in someone’s home?
- What are some things they shouldn’t do?

WRITING

PART 6

Read about a typical birthday party in the United States. Then write a paragraph about a typical birthday party in your country or a country you know well. Use the information in the paragraph as a guide.

In the United States, you usually go to a restaurant on your birthday. You invite good friends to eat with you. Your friends ought to pay for their own meal and also pay for your meal. At the end of the meal, people eat birthday cake. Before eating the cake, you make a wish and then blow out candles on the cake. People also get gifts on their birthday. And you should send a thank-you note to everyone who gave you a gift.
