READING

PART 3

Read Martina's diary passage. Then choose the correct answers.

Dear diary,

My first English class was today. I went to school early in the morning. When I arrived at the classroom there was only one other student there. We waited for ten minutes, but no other students came and the teacher wasn't there. I asked the other student, "Is this room 114?" He checked and said, "No, this is room 116."

We were in the wrong room! We ran to the other classroom. It was 8:58 a.m. so we weren't late. There were a lot of students in room 114. I was nervous about speaking to so many people at first, but at the end of the class I was happy and relaxed. I made new friends from countries all over the world: Mexico, Russia, China, and Italy, but I was the only student from Germany. The teacher, Mike, was very friendly. At first, I thought he was Australian, but he wasn't. He said, "I'm from Auckland, in New Zealand." He also said he was in Germany last summer. He stayed in Berlin and then traveled around Germany for five weeks.

WRITINGPART 6*Read the email. Then write a reply.

Dear Student,

Thank you for joining the English language course here at the International English Language Institute. We want to know all about your first class. We want your comments, so that we can improve our services for students.

Please answer these questions:

- Where was your classroom?
- How many students were in your class?
- How did you feel in the class?
- Who was your teacher?
- How was your teacher?

Please ask us any questions you have about your class. Thank you for your time and we hope you have fun studying here.

Sincerely,

Jack Robinson

Student Services Manager
