READINGPART 3*Read the information page. Then choose the correct answers.

The American Museum of Natural History is located on the island of Manhattan in New York City. Use this information to plan your travel:

If you are in New York City, getting to the museum is easy. Take the B or C subway lines and get off at the 81st Street stop. You can also take the M79 bus. There is a bus stop across the street from the 77th Street entrance of the museum. There is a parking lot for people driving into the city. Enter at 81st Street to find the parking lot under the museum.

There are three entrances. The main entrance is in front of the Theodore Roosevelt Rotunda. This entrance is located at Central Park West between 77th Street and 81st Street. A second entrance is on 77th Street between Central Park West and Columbus Avenue. This entrance is only open for large groups, schools, and special events. There is also an entrance under the museum on Central Park West, but you can only use it if you take the subway to the museum.
