READINGPART 3*Read the email. Then choose the correct answers.

Hi Martin,

I saw your email about places to go on vacation. Here are some of my ideas:

Let's not go to California. It's very far from here and I don't have a lot of vacation time. Why don't we go there at the end of the year when I have more time off?

So, let's go somewhere close to Vancouver. You and I have talked about driving into the United States, so why don't we go to Seattle? It will be a nice city for us to spend time in. There's some really interesting museums, especially for music. I know you like nature, so we can always take a boat from Seattle to the San Juan Islands.

Email me back soon. Don't take too much time to think. We only have a few weeks to plan our trip.

SPEAKING

PART 5

Read what Lisa has to say. Then give her advice in your response. Think about the activities she can do, the things she can eat, or the things she can do to be happier.

Lisa: I really want to live a long time. And I want my life to be healthy. Give me some advice on how I can live a long and healthy life.

WRITING

PART 6

Read the email from Clive. Then write an email and answer his questions. Describe the hotel and suggest one or two things that you can do together. Use the imperative and language for making suggestions in your email.

Hi,

I hope you're doing well! I can't wait to see you this Saturday! This will be my first time in your city! What's the best way to get to your city? Bus? Train? Or by car? Also, I didn't book a hotel yet. What's a good hotel in your city? I want to stay near famous sights. Can you tell me a nice place? Are the rooms big or small? Also, what do you want to do on Saturday? I don't have anything to do. Can you suggest a few things? Write back soon!

Best,
Clive
