

UNIT 10 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Marwa: Have you already finished making plans for your vacation in Egypt?
- Erik: Not yet. I'm still trying to decide on some final activities, but I think I'm mostly ready. Can you give me advice?
- Marwa: Sure! I was born and raised there until I was 16, so I really like telling people about Egypt and where to go. Where do you plan to go in Egypt?
- Erik: I definitely am going to see the Pyramids of Giza, and I plan to go to Luxor to see the Sphinx.
- Marwa: Good choices. What else are you going to do?
- Erik: I don't know—maybe I'll ride a camel in the desert. Actually, I have always wanted to visit the Nile River since it's so famous. I'm thinking about taking a river cruise.
- Marwa: Oh, don't do that! That's not unique. Nobody from Egypt rides a boat on the Nile. I recommend going to the Red Sea instead.
- Erik: Have you ever been to the Red Sea?
- Marwa: Yes, I've often enjoyed holidays with family and friends at the Red Sea. It's really nice.
- Erik: What did you do when you went there?
- Marwa: Play on the beach, swim in the sea, have a picnic and relax. There are lots of colorful fish in the water, and sometimes you see sharks, too!
- Erik: Have you ever seen a shark?!
- Marwa: Yes! I've seen a shark twice.
- Erik: Were you scared?
- Marwa: Yes! The first time, I was so frightened. But the second time, I learned that the sharks usually don't attack people. They're just swimming.
- Erik: Wow, that's amazing. I love watching movies about sharks, and hope I get to see one in Egypt!

Marwa: Maybe you'll be lucky.
