

UNIT 20 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

Youssef: I'm getting hungrier and hungrier by the minute. Have you decided where you want to go to dinner yet?

Andreas: I'm looking at some reviews on the Internet, but nothing looks all good.

Youssef: Why don't we just go to one of the places we usually go to? Somewhere close by.

Andreas: OK, OK. What do we want though: pizza? Chinese? Mexican?

Youssef: Let's do pizza. The Chinese place is more expensive than the other two, but it's not that good. And Mexican is a much longer walk than the pizza restaurants. I'm assuming you don't want to take the bus, right?

Andreas: Definitely not. OK. So, there are two good pizza places in the neighborhood: Little Sicily and Maria's. Maria's is a bit closer to here than Little Sicily, and it's much better in my opinion.

Youssef: Really? Little Sicily is getting better and better all the time, and it definitely has a larger variety of food than Maria's.

Andreas: That's true. But it's quite a bit more expensive than Maria's. Little Sicily has become less and less affordable as it's gotten more popular. Every restaurant is the same.

Youssef: Well, you have a lot more money than me, so you can afford the pricey menu of Little Sicily.

Andreas: I thought you were getting hungrier and hungrier? Are you sure you want to go to place that is farther from here?

Youssef: The better the food, the more satisfied I'll be. Let's go to Little Sicily.

Andreas: Sounds good to me.
