

UNIT 22 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

Jorge: Hey Belinda. Getting something to eat before the second half starts?

Belinda: Yea, I've been dying for a pretzel. But this line is so slow. I'm so hungry. The longer I wait, the angrier I become for not having food!

Jorge: This game has been excellent so far, hasn't it? And that was only the first half!

Belinda: This is the best game I've seen in a long time.

Jorge: Yea, I didn't expect the Wildcats to play as well as they are playing. I never knew that they could score as many points as they did in just the first half. Their defense is their strength, and they usually don't score much.

Belinda: I thought the same thing. Number 12, I forget her name...

Jorge: Rebecca Ramos.

Belinda: Yea, her. She's playing more aggressively than I've ever seen her play. It's unbelievable.

Jorge: Yea, the more aggressive she is, the better she plays.

Belinda: And number 14, Anna Clintock, she's playing better today, too. She's moving faster than she usually does. At least it appears that way. I guess that's why the Wildcats are playing as well as they are.

Jorge: I know. I thought the Bulldogs would win this game easily. But I think they are without their star player.

Belinda: You mean Min-Jeong Lee? She's playing today, but she's hurt. She plays the hardest of anyone on the Bulldogs, but today she's not playing as well as she usually does. Unfortunate for them, but it's good for us. Our team is doing well! (pause) Uhh, this line is moving even more slowly now. I hate this. When am I gonna get my pretzel?

Jorge: Before the second half starts I hope. I'm going to run back in. See you later.

Belinda: Later Jorge.
