

UNIT 32 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Mark: Hey there, Anna.
- Anne: 'Sup Mark. Mark, are you feeling OK? Your eyes are so red.
- Mark: Huh? What? I just went for a swim. They put chemicals in the water to make it clean. That could be it.
- Anne: I see. You started swimming huh? You must be a bit tired after all of that exercise.
- Mark: Actually, I feel energized from the exercise! But my head is also hurting a little bit. Do you have any aspirin?
- Anne: I might. Let me check (pause, shuffling sound of searching a bag). Yep, here you go. You can have my last two.
- Mark: Thanks Anne. So, where do you want to go for dinner?
- Anne: I was waiting for you to ask... I'd like a big steak. People were talking about steaks at work today. How about Renzo's? It's really close.
- Mark: I'm not sure. The steak might not be that good there. They are better known for their pasta dishes.
- Anne: True. How about that place across the street... Carolina's Barbeque Pit? I just walked by it. It must be new. But it has got to have good steaks. What do you think?
- Mark: Let's walk over and take a look. (pause) So, did you hear someone broke into Chelsea's house yesterday?
- Anne: I did. And they took her computer and all of her jewelry. She emailed me about it this morning.
- Mark: I think it could be her brother. He's had a lot of money problems, I heard.
- Anne: Yea, it could be. It could also be her ex-boyfriend. He was pretty crazy from what I remember. And he never had any money.
- Mark: Naw, it couldn't be him. He's in jail now.

Anne: He might be in jail, but maybe he escaped...
