

UNIT 4 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

Madison: Welcome back home, Kai!

Kai: I can't believe I haven't been back to Farmington in over 10 years.

Madison: I know! I haven't seen you since then. So many things have changed, right?

Kai: You can say that again. Arturo's Pizza on Park Place—where did that go? We used to go there all the time in high school. Remember?

Madison: Of course I remember. We would go there and always get the same thing: cheese pizza and a coke for two dollars... It really has been a long time for you though, Kai. Arturo's closed about five years ago.

Kai: Wow. I used to think that place would be there forever. I guess I was wrong.

Madison: Well, you know what's still around? That old ice cream shop over on Convent Road. Remember that? I still go there once in a while.

Kai: Ehh, no, not really. I never used to go there. Maybe you started going there after I left Farmington.

Madison: Hmm, maybe. But I thought I went with you in high school as well. I guess we didn't. Anyway, what's going on with you? Are you still playing the guitar?

Kai: Nope. Not anymore.

Madison: What!? You used to be so good at it. Why'd you stop playing?

Kai: No reason. I just think I lost interest. I stopped playing about three years ago. What about you—do you still play basketball? You used to play all the time.

Madison: Yep. I still play sometimes. And I think I can still beat you.

Kai: I don't know about that. Let's go to the park and play. I could use a little exercise.

Madison: Sounds good. Let me go get my stuff.
