

UNIT 5 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Interviewer: Thank you for your interest in my new film. Tell me, Kathy: Why do you want to become an actress?
- Kathy: Well, I was in a few theater performances here in town, and I loved them.
- Interviewer: Where did you perform?
- Kathy: At the Little Black Theater downtown. I had the lead role in our last production.
- Interviewer: Really? Whom did you play?
- Kathy: I played Hannah in Denial Is a River.
- Interviewer: That sounds familiar. Who wrote that play?
- Kathy: Emil Sher. There was a good review of my performance in the local newspaper. There's a copy of it in my portfolio.
- Interviewer: Oh? Who wrote the review?
- Kathy: A reporter named Jim Carlotta. He saw the play on closing night.
- Interviewer: How many performances did you have?
- Kathy: Twelve. And my biggest break yet came in May.
- Interviewer: What happened in May?
- Kathy: I had a small part in an independent film. That was fun.
- Interviewer: Which kinds of characters do you prefer to play?
- Kathy: I like to play smart, confident women. I played a lawyer in the film.
- Interviewer: I see. And whose scripts do you relate to the most?
- Kathy: Well, I really like scripts by Scott Hathaway.
- Interviewer: Oh? I haven't heard of him. What did he write?
- Kathy: His most famous play is called Elsewhere. Do you know it?
- Interviewer: I'm afraid I don't. Well, Kathy, now I'd like you to read a script for me...
