Blair: Hi, mom. How are you?

Mom: Oh, hi darling. I'm doing all right. How are you?

Blair: Well, the people from Microscope called me to set up and interview.

Mom: That's wonderful! When is the interview?

Blair: Well, they left me a message a few hours ago, but I haven't called them back yet.

Mom: A few hours ago? You (1) are supposed to call / were supposed to call / were supposed to called them back right away. What are you waiting for?

Blair: I'm just very nervous, mom. What if they ask me questions on the phone that I'm not prepared to answer? What (2) I am supposed to do / am I suppose to call / am I supposed to do?

Mom: They may do that, but they probably won't. They just want to set up a date. And if they do ask you questions, I'm sure you'll do just fine.

Blair: OK, I'll call them now. But can you also tell me what (3) I'm supposed to wear / I'm suppose to wear / am I supposed to wear to the interview?

Mom: Dress professionally. A pair of slacks, a blouse, and a cardigan would look nice. And wear those black pumps you got at the mall the other day. They're perfect. The heel is just the right height. You're (4) supposed to no wear / supposed not to wear / not supposed to wear heels that are more than three inches high.

Blair: Thanks for the suggestions, mom. And what time (5) I am supposed to arrive / am I supposed to arrive / will I supposed to arrive at the interview?

Mom: Be there fifteen minutes before the scheduled time. (6) You not supposed to be / You're not supposed to be / You are supposed to be there much earlier than that.

Blair: (7) Am I supposed to bring / Do I suppose to bring / I am supposed to bring anything with me?
