READING

PART 3

Read the passage. Then answer the questions.

I grew up in the U.S., but I have always been interested in the world and traveling to foreign places. My parents didn't let me study abroad when I was in high school or college, so I decided to work abroad instead. So far, I have worked in three different countries: Korea, Oman and Tajikistan. My experience has been positive, but there have been challenges. For example, it was easy for me to learn Korean, but Arabic and Russian were difficult for me to learn. Also, although I have traveled to other countries while working internationally, such as China, Nepal, and Lebanon, sometimes I felt lonely and wished my friends or family were able to join me on these trips. I have ridden on a motorcycle to see famous temples in Cambodia, and I have walked on the beach in Thailand at sunrise. I have also eaten delicious meals in India and fresh sushi in Japan. My friends have often suggested I become a photographer because they like seeing the photos of my adventures that I post online. I've never been to Africa, so I hope I can go on a safari in Kenya next year, and maybe even visit Ghana.
