SPEAKING

PART 5

Read a man's statement about where he was when his car was stolen. Ask at least 5 questions to get more information.

Statement:

We went to the movies first. After the movie, we went out to dinner. The restaurant was busy, so it took a long time to get a table. When we finished eating, we went back to the movie theater to get the car, but it was gone. I called the police the next morning. The police asked me to come in and make a statement, so I drove to the police station immediately.

WRITING

PART 6

Imagine you are a reporter who has to write a news article about a big car accident. You want to get more information from witnesses about the accident. Prepare a list of at least 5 questions using when, where, who, what, how much/many, how, etc.
