

UNIT 2 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Josh: Hey, Seth. What did you want me to help you with?
- Seth: Hi, Josh. Suzy wants me to put a slide show and music show together for our wedding party. I was hoping you can help me select some photos she sent me.
- Josh: Sure, that would be fun. Where are they?
- Seth: They're on my computer. I was just looking at photos of Suzy and I when we first met. You're in some of them, too.
- Josh: I am? Was I with you when you met? What were we doing?
- Seth: Remember that weekend we were staying near Lake George? In those cottages that didn't have electricity?
- Josh: Oh yeah, I'll never forget it. While I was walking outside on the first night, I slipped in the dark and really hurt my knee.
- Seth: Oh, that's right. You were lying on the sofa with ice on your leg when Suzy arrived at our cottage. She wanted to borrow a flashlight. She was wearing a pale, yellow dress and a floppy hat. It was love at first sight.
- Josh: Yes, such a romantic weekend! While I was lying in pain, you were happily laughing, swimming, and falling in love.
- Seth: Look!! Here we are in the canoe. I think this is my favorite photo ever. It was the next morning while everyone was still sleeping, we went out in the canoe and watched the sun rise.
- Josh: Use that photo, too. What other photos are there?
- Seth: Here's a photo of us when we were graduating. Wow! We look so young.
- Josh: Everyone in that photo will be at the wedding, so that has to go in. And that photo? Who are those people?
- Seth: Our parents. And what a disastrous evening that was! At least in the photo we look like we were enjoying ourselves.

Josh: It's a really good photo of you all.

Seth: Suzy and I decided it was time to introduce our parents. We invited them out for dinner, but Suzy's dad hated the music so much that he got up and left while the band was still playing. It was really embarrassing. We really don't have much in common.

Josh: Doesn't sound like a fun guy. I hope he's happy with the slide show. You said you were thinking of having music with the photos. Do you think that's a good idea?

Seth: That's actually a very good point. I need to ask Suzy about that.
