

UNIT 9 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Lisa: Hi, Jane. Where are you going?
- Jane: To the store. I need to pick up some groceries.
- Lisa: Oh! My dorm doesn't have anything where I can cook. I usually eat in the school cafeteria. But next semester, I'll be in an apartment and I'll be able to cook, so I'll need to go to the store. Where do you usually go to get groceries?
- Jane: There's a supermarket near my house that I like. It's good for buying most things, but the fruit and vegetables aren't that fresh.
- Lisa: Someone told me about a local farmer's market in town. They said they love buying their fruit and vegetables there.
- Jane: Yes, it's fantastic! Buying fresh and local produce is so much better. But I can't shop there because I have to go to class that morning.
- Lisa: I prefer local as well. When is it?
- Jane: Wednesday mornings. My roommates always go. There's also an ethnic food stand if you need to find something special.
- Lisa: Sounds great, I'm definitely going to shop there. Do you share the food expenses with your roommates?
- Jane: Yes. We've found that by sharing the expenses, we can save a lot. We each pay $15 or $20 for groceries and take turns shopping.
- Lisa: That's a good idea.
- Jane: Oh, I wanted to remind you to come to our dinner party tomorrow night.
- Lisa: I'll be there. Do you need some help with the cooking?
- Jane: No, thanks. But we're asking everyone to give us $10 instead. I'm going to pick up a few things for tomorrow night now. Do you want to come with me?
- Lisa: Sure, I have time to go before my class starts. What are you planning on making?

Jane: I convinced my Italian roommates to make fresh pasta. So they've given me a list of things they need me to buy.

Lisa: Sounds great! I'll give you a hand. Let's go!
