

UNIT 24 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

- Beth: Guess who I saw yesterday?
- Wendy: Who?
- Beth: Greg. He was really excited about this woman he went on a date with this weekend. I asked who it was, and he said, "It's Cindy Maxwell. She's gorgeous."
- Wendy: Oh, HE's the guy who took her out!
- Beth: Do you know her then?
- Wendy: Sure I do. We work right next to each other. We're friends.
- Beth: He said it was a great date.
- Wendy: Really? Because Cindy said it hadn't gone well.
- Beth: Oh. I wonder what happened? I know they went to that new Korean restaurant.
- Wendy: Yeah. Cindy said the place was beautifully decorated and had a fountain in the garden.
- Beth: Exactly. Sounds really romantic. And Greg told me that Cindy said it was the first time she'd eaten Korean food, and that she had really enjoyed it.
- Wendy: That's strange, because she told me she hasn't been feeling well since she ate the spicy food there. Actually she said that she had warned Greg before they went out, saying, "I can't eat spicy food, so if Korean food is spicy then we shouldn't go." And he said, "All the food there is delicious. I know, because I went to the opening night and tasted practically everything."
- Beth: Oh, I'm starting to understand what happened. He's a great friend of mine, but sometimes when Greg gets an idea in his head he won't listen to any one.
- Wendy: That's exactly what Cindy thought. She said he lives in his own world, and that her last boyfriend was the same.
- Beth: Well anyway, Greg did say they'd had a good conversation during dinner, and that they'd really gotten to know each other.

Wendy: If that means Cindy got to know a lot about Greg; I guess you could say that. But Cindy couldn't believe that he didn't even ask her what she did. She's got a really good job and it's very important to her.

Beth: Oh, wow! It really doesn't seem like he is going to have much success when he asks her out again then.

Wendy: What? Did he say he was going to?

Beth: Yes, he said he's calling her tonight.

Wendy: That's not a good idea! Cindy told me she definitely doesn't want a repeat of her last relationship, and she had seen all the warning signs in Greg. I'm pretty sure she won't go out with him again.

Beth: Poor Greg. He totally misunderstood the evening.

Wendy: Yes, I'd say he needs to stop thinking about himself so much.
