

UNIT 25 REVIEW TEST LISTENING SCRIPT

Michelle: Hello?

Gary: Hello? Hello, Michelle?

Michelle: Gary! Hi, still on your way home?

Gary: No! I'm stuck in the snowstorm! I'm about two miles out. The snow is coming down so heavy I can't drive on the road. I'm pulled over and there are about four other cars on the side of the road.

Michelle: Oh no, Gary! Well, ... well, just stay in the car.

Gary: I definitely will stay in the car. It's absolutely freezing out there! This is crazy! I've never seen it snowing like this before.

Michelle: Shall I call the police or something?

Gary: I already did, they told us that we would have to wait here for an hour or so. They said the guys with the snow machines were going to head out as soon as the storm moves further north. It'll take them about 30 minutes to get here.

Michelle: Ah, ok. Well, do you have some food or anything in the car?

Gary: Yeah there's still some leftover pizza from lunch, and I've got my coffee in a bottle. And don't worry, I've got the heater on so it's pretty warm in the car.

Michelle: OK, well, will you call me in an hour?

Gary: Yeah, no problem, I have my charger so my phone battery won't die. I guess you'd better tell Mike and Dawn that I'm going to be a bit late for dinner.

Michelle: Oh, don't worry about that right now. Our guests have just arrived. We'll eat first and I can keep your food warm in the oven. Get home safely. I'm worried about you!

Gary: It's fine, honestly. See you soon.
