PART 2Choose the correct word or words to complete the paragraph.

Last weekend, my neighbor Ellen phoned me. She invited me (1) go / to go / to went for a ride in her new car. I told her I would love to. As soon as I got into the car, Ellen told me (2) to buckle / that buckle / that I buckled / my seat belt. I was pleased because I thought this meant she was a safe driver. Was I in for a surprise! I became alarmed when the speedometer approached 70 miles per hour. When it passed 70, I asked her (3) to slow down / that to slow down / that I slow down. When it passed 75, I panicked and I urged her (4) don't speed / not to speed / didn't speed. Ellen slowed down for a while, but then she sped up again. That's when we heard a siren. A police officer signaled us to pull over and stop. He got out of his car and asked Ellen (5) show him / show him to / to show him her driver's license. She only had a learner's permit! He (6) said her / said her to / told her to give him the permit, and ordered her (7) not drive / to not drive / not to drive anymore. Then, after checking my license, he told me (8) get / to get / that I get in the driver's seat and follow him to the police station. Two hours later, on the way home from the station, Ellen invited me (9) have / to have / that I have dinner at her place. I thanked her but said I had a headache and needed to take a nap.
