READING

PART 3

Read the letter. Then choose the correct answers.

Dear Jennifer,

It was wonderful to get your letter. I'm glad everything is going well with the new job. I wish you'd gotten the job here. It would have been so much fun to live in the same town. We could see each other more often and our girls could have spent time together. But, I'm glad you found a job you like.

Speaking of the girls, have I told you about this phase Sierra is going through? I don't know what is more surprising, the fashion choices she makes or how often she changes her mind. She's had her left ear pierced five times and the right ear is pierced twice. And yesterday, she went with a friend to the hairdresser and came back with pink hair. I think I prefer it to the short blue hair stuck straight up in the air that she had last month. But still, it's never boring around here.

Gustavo keeps saying that no daughter of his should look like that. But I guess he isn't used to teenage girls. Remember when you first brought me home to meet your parents, our first year of university together? I was in that phase where I wore all black. And you had dyed your hair red. Your mother was not happy at all. I admit kids today are bit wilder than we were, but she'll grow out of it, I'm sure. The important thing is that Sierra is getting good grades and she does all her work around the house. She's been on the honor list every semester at her high school—we're so pleased! So, if she wants to try different styles, I guess I can't get too upset about it.

Oh and, we are finally seeing the end of the work on the house. You remember the pictures I sent you when we bought it? The paint was peeling, the carpets were filthy and all ripped up, there were holes in the wall. And the yard was full of weeds! Well, we got everything fixed. We got the carpets cleaned and the whole house repainted. I'll put a picture in the envelope so you can see how much nicer it looks. Ignore the outside. Someday we will plant a beautiful garden. We want to put roses in the front yard. But that will have to wait until next year. Getting the house ready to live in was enough for this year.

That's all the news from my end. Be sure to write back soon and tell me about your new house and job and everything!

Love,
Sarah
