PART 2

Choose the correct words to complete the conversation.

Brian: Did you read the paper this morning? There's an article that says our competitors found a cure for the common cold. Look, here (1) is / is it / it is.

Stephanie: I know! The news is everywhere. I (2) heard just / just heard / heard only it on the radio this morning. But I don't believe it. (3) Clearly / Clearly, / Fortunately, it can't be true. No way (4) can there be / can be there / there can be a cure.

Brian: What? Why not?

Stephanie: Well, we have (5) surely, / surely / unfortunately made some advances in understanding colds, but I don't believe the news because (6) cold just / even cold / cold even viruses change all the time. Plus, there (7) hardly are / are hardly / aren't hardly any facts in the news reports I've heard. I need to see more proof before I believe it.

Brian: Well, (8) here is the article / here the article is / the article here is in black and white. (9) Hope / Basically / Hopefully, you'll read it. This has the potential to strike a serious blow to our company if it's true.
