8A Can I park here?

8.1

In some states in Mexico, you only need to take a written test, not a driver's test.

In Vietnam, it's very difficult to pass the written test. It has 450 questions!

In Croatia, you need to have 85 hours of driving lessons before you take the driver's test.

In Ukraine, if you do three things wrong in your driver's test, you fail.

In Brazil, before your driver's test, you need to pass a psychological test to get your driver's license.

8.2

1 B

Anna The written test is very difficult. I can practice online, but I can't answer the questions. "Can you turn right at a red light?" I don't know!

2 C

Anna An 85 on the written test – amazing! My first lesson with Dad – total disaster! Now Dad says I can't practice in his car.

3 A

Anna Dad is a terrible teacher! I need some lessons with a good driving instructor! Friends, can you help?

8.3

Instructor Hello, can I help you?

Anna Yes, can I book some driving lessons, please?

Instructor Yes, of course.

Anna When can I start?

Instructor I'm free on Monday. We can meet at your house.

Anna Can you come at 8:30?

Instructor No, sorry, I can't. I have a lesson at 8:00.

Anna OK... Can you come at 10 o'clock?

Instructor Yes, I can. The lessons are one hour, so 10:00 to 11:00, OK?

Anna Great!

Instructor What's your name and address?

Anna It's Anna Jones...

8.4

I like cooking alone. I don't like having other people in the kitchen. But I like eating with friends, especially when I'm out. I don't like being alone in a restaurant.

Sarah

I don't like traveling alone. I prefer going on vacation with friends. But they need to be the right friends!

I like shopping with friends. When I go alone, I usually buy things that look horrible on me. I need a second opinion!

Greta

I love dancing alone at home to really old music from the 70s, like ABBA. But I never dance with other people at parties because I know I'm a terrible dancer.

Becca

I like running alone. It helps me to concentrate, and it's very peaceful! But I prefer going for walks with other people because I like walking and talking.

Andy

I like driving alone. I love listening to my favorite music in the car and singing very loudly – but with the windows closed, of course!

A day in the life of a private investigator

People think a private investigator's job is exciting, but is it really true? See what you think.

On a typical day, I get up early and I go to my office. I don't need to wear a suit. I usually wear a shirt and pants. I start work at about 9. I sit at my desk and work at my computer. I answer phone calls. I speak to colleagues. Then, at about 6, I finish work and go home.

The calls are usually from clients – new clients or current clients. With a new client, first, I usually meet them in person in our office. Some clients are private individuals. Perhaps they want us to find a missing person. Other clients are companies. Perhaps they want us to check if an employee is really sick or not. Then we need to investigate the problem. We usually do this online. Clients pay for each day we work, and they don't want to pay a lot of money, so we try to work fast. But sometimes our work is different, and today is one of those days. I'm not working in the office, I'm working on the street. I'm sitting in my car with my camera. I'm watching and waiting. I'm hoping to see a man. He lives in the building across the street, and my client wants me to follow him. I'm wearing a jacket, and I'm wearing sunglasses because I don't want the man to see my face. Is this more exciting than being in the office? Sometimes. But waiting in a car is often boring, and it's a long day, not just from 9 to 6. Sometimes it's difficult to stay awake!

The life of a private investigator is not like in movies and on TV. But each case is different, and solving a case feels great.

9.10

He usually works in an office, but today he's working on the street. He usually wears a shirt and pants. Today he's wearing a jacket and sunglasses, too.

9.11

11A A new life in the US

11.1

We followed our dream

My wife and I always wanted to live abroad. But Miriam and I both work in the UK – she's a doctor and I'm a designer – and we have two small children, Sacha and Elena. Then an American university, Duke, in Durham, North Carolina, asked Miriam to go and work there for a year. At first, we weren't sure what to do. There were so many questions. What about Sacha's school? What do we do with our house? But finally, we decided to go!

11.2

1 F

We rented a house near the university.

2 C

We booked our flights. It was a long trip!

3 D

We invited our friends to a restaurant to say goodbye.

4 E

We packed seven heavy suitcases.

5 A

The children didn't want to sleep on the plane. Sacha played with toys and Elena looked at books.

6 B

When we arrived in North Carolina, we were very tired!

11.3

I arrived at the airport at 7 o'clock.

I didn't arrive at the airport at 7 o'clock.

/ɪd/

We rented a house near the university.
We invited our friends to a restaurant.

11.5

At first, living in the US was very difficult. We missed our friends and family, and we didn't like the food. It was difficult to find good chocolate. We also needed to rent a car. In London, we don't drive, but in Durham, not many people walk or use public transportation! But we soon started to enjoy it. Our house was nice, and near a big park. Sacha liked his school, especially his music teacher, who played the trumpet! He worked hard and his teachers were very happy with him.

11.6

Miriam really liked her job – it was very interesting. I worked from home, so I was with the children a lot and I loved it. In general, life was good. It was cheap – cheaper than in the UK. We joined a sports club, where the children learned to swim, and I played a lot of tennis, one of my favorite sports.

The people in Durham were very friendly. They often invited us to their homes. It was easy to meet people at the sports club, or at the university where Miriam worked. And there were so many new places to see! On weekends, we visited some of the beautiful national parks. They were very different from English parks! In one park, there was a sign saying, "Don't disturb the snakes" – Sacha loved it!

I also remember a trip to a country music festival at a blueberry farm. It was fantastic. First, we listened to the music, and then we picked a lot of blueberries – they're Elena's favorite fruit. But after that trip, she didn't want to eat a blueberry for at least two weeks!

We stayed in Durham for a year. After that, we returned to England because my wife's job finished. But we loved our life in the US, and we're thinking of going back there in maybe two or three years.

Life in a day

Early in the morning in the US, a baby opened his eyes and looked at his mother. "Isn't he pretty?" she asked the camera. Around the world, people got up, and washed, and had breakfast. A 15-year-old boy shaved for the first time. He didn't enjoy it! A small boy kissed his mother on her birthday.

July 24th was a Saturday, so a lot of people didn't go to work. They relaxed and went to the park with their family, or went shopping. But other people worked hard, or cooked and cleaned. Some children played – but others worked. One small boy cleaned shoes on the street. One woman went to the hospital for an operation. Another woman waited all evening for a video call from her husband. He was a soldier thousands of miles from home.

For some people, July 24th was a special day. A man arrived in Kathmandu. He was on a bicycle trip around the world. A woman did an incredible skydive. An unemployed man got his first job. A boy who was in college went home to see his father for the first time in three years. Another man asked his girlfriend to marry him. [SFX: Indian music starts] A man and a woman got married and had an incredible party.

This beautiful movie shows us life around the world in the 21st century. Watch it! It's free on YouTube.

Strangers on a Train

Part 1

When the train stopped at the station, I opened my eyes and looked out of the window. I saw a woman on the platform. She was tall and blond with blue eyes. The train moved and I closed my eyes. It was 4:00 p.m. and the train was full.

"Excuse me. Can I sit here?" I opened my eyes again. It was the tall, blond woman.

"Sure," I answered. She sat down next to me. There was a nice smell. Chanel No. 5. I started to listen to music on my phone.

"I love Chopin."

"Sorry?" I said.

"You're listening to Chopin. I love classical music." She smiled. Her eyes were very blue.

We talked about music until the train arrived at Paddington Station. "Would you like a cup of coffee?" she asked me. I looked at my watch. "OK," I said. "I have time."

"I work for Citibank."

"That's interesting!" said Olivia. "Do you live in London?"

"Yes, but I'm new here. I moved to London last month. I have a flat in Chelsea."

"Wow! That's an expensive part of London!"

I looked at my watch. "Time to go. I have a tennis lesson this evening."

"I can drive you home," she said. "I live near Chelsea." I told her my address.
