A day in the life of… a private investigator

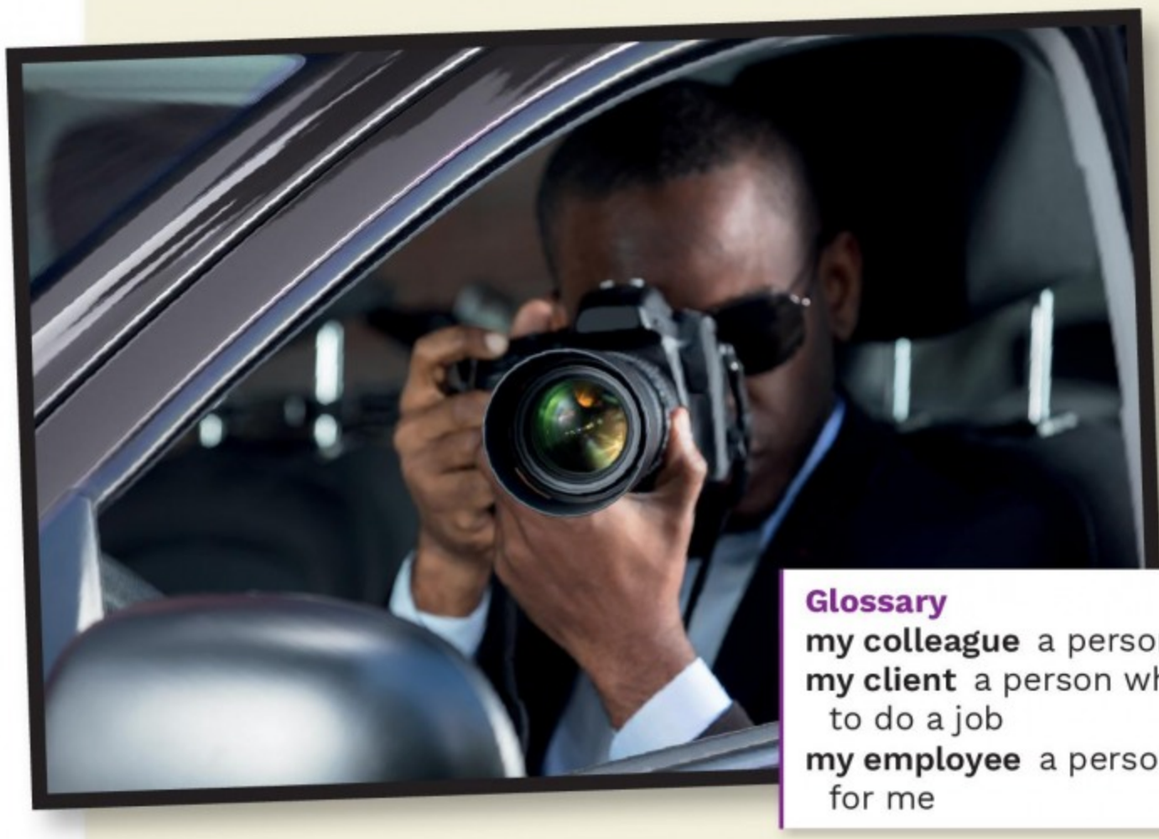

People think a private investigator's job is exciting, but is it really true? See what you think.

On a typical day, I get up early and I go to my office. I don't need to wear a suit. I usually wear a shirt and pants. I start work at about 9:00. I sit at my desk and work at my computer. I answer phone calls. I speak to colleagues. Then, at about 6:00, I finish work and go home.

The calls are usually from clients – new clients or current clients. With a new client, first I usually meet them in person in our office. Some clients are private individuals. Perhaps they want us to find a missing person. Other clients are companies. Perhaps they want us to check if an employee is really sick or not. Then we need to investigate the problem. We usually do this online. Clients pay for each day we work, and they don't want to pay a lot of money, so we try to work fast.

But sometimes our work is different, and today is one of those days. I'm not working in the office, I'm working on the street. I'm sitting in my car with my camera. I'm watching and waiting. I'm hoping to see a man. He lives in the building across the street, and my client wants me to follow him. I'm wearing a jacket, and I'm wearing sunglasses because I don't want the man to see my face. Is this more exciting than being in the office? Sometimes. But waiting in a car is often boring, and it's a long day, not just from 9:00 to 6:00. Sometimes it's difficult to stay awake!

The life of a private investigator is not like in movies and on TV. But each case is different, and solving a case feels great.

1 READING & VOCABULARY hotels

a 10.1 Read and listen to the tourist information about Vermont and Lake Champlain. Would you like to go to Vermont? What would you like to see and do there?

VISIT VERMONT

Vermont is one of the top tourist destinations in the US, with 140 mountain peaks, 50 ski areas, 46 lakes, interesting museums, and beautiful cities and towns. There's something for visitors of all ages.

WHY LAKE CHAMPLAIN?

Lake Champlain is a 125-mile-long lake between the states of Vermont and New York – and it's perfect for vacations.

You can take a boat trip on the lake and visit the ECHO, Leahy Center for Lake Champlain to find out all about the lake and "Champ," the monster.

One of the most famous ice-cream makers in the US, Ben and Jerry's, is very close to the lake shore.

There are also wonderful places for walking or riding a bike nearby.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Stay at the Holiday Hotel. It's the perfect place for a great view of the lake.

4 READING & LISTENING

a 11.5 Read and listen to part of Dominic's blog about their life in the US. What did they like about the US? What was a problem for them?

At first, living in the US was very difficult. We missed our friends and family, and we didn't like the food. We also needed to rent a car. In London, we don't drive, but in Durham, not many people walk or use public transportation!

But we soon started to enjoy it. Our house was nice, and near a big park. Sacha liked his school, especially his music teacher, who played the trumpet! He worked hard and his teachers were very happy with him.

LIFE IN A DAY

We asked people around the world to film their lives. We got 4,500 hours of video from 102 countries. All of it was filmed on the same day – July 24th.

Early in the morning in the US, a baby opened his eyes and looked at his mother. "Isn't he pretty?" she asked the camera. Around the world, people got up, and washed, and had breakfast. A 15-year-old boy shaved for the first time. He didn't enjoy it! A small boy kissed his mother on her birthday.

July 24th was a Saturday, so a lot of people didn't go to work. They relaxed and went to the park with their family, or went shopping. But other people worked hard, or cooked and cleaned. Some children played – but others worked. One small boy cleaned shoes on the street. One woman went to the hospital for an operation.

Another woman waited all evening for a video call from her husband. He was a soldier thousands of miles from home.

For some people, July 24th was a special day. A man arrived in Kathmandu. He was on a bicycle trip around the world. A woman did an incredible skydive. An unemployed man got his first job. A boy who was in college went home to see his father for the first time in three years. Another man asked his girlfriend to marry him. A man and a woman got married and had an incredible party.

This beautiful movie shows us life around the world in the 21st century. Watch it! It's free on YouTube.

2 READING & LISTENING

12.3–12.4 Read and listen to the story. In pairs, ask and answer the questions after each part.

Strangers on a train

12.3 Part 1

When the train stopped at the station, I opened my eyes and looked out of the window. I saw a woman on the platform. She was tall and blond with blue eyes. The train moved and I closed my eyes. It was 4:00 p.m. and the train was full.

"Excuse me. Can I sit here?" I opened my eyes again. It was the tall, blond woman.

"Sure," I answered. She sat down next to me. There was a nice smell. Chanel No. 5. I started to listen to music on my phone.

"I love Chopin."

"Sorry?" I said.

"You're listening to Chopin. I love classical music." She smiled. Her eyes were very blue.

We talked about music until the train arrived at Paddington Station. "Would you like a cup of coffee?" she asked me. I looked at my watch. "OK," I said. "I have time."

1 Where did the man first see the woman?
2 What was the woman's perfume?
3 What did they talk about?
4 What did the woman invite him to do when the train arrived?

12.4 Part 2

We bought two coffees at the station café. We sat down.

"My name's Olivia,"' she said.

"I'm David. I'm from Chicago. Nice to meet you. What do you do?" I asked.

"I work in property – flats and houses. What do you do?"

"I work for Citibank."

"That's interesting!" said Olivia. "Do you live in London?"

"Yes, but I'm new here. I moved to London last month. I have a flat in Chelsea."

"Wow! That's an expensive part of London!"

I looked at my watch. "Time to go. I have a tennis lesson this evening."

"I can drive you home," she said. "I live near Chelsea." I told her my address.

A UNIQUE CULTURE

I studied for three months at Al-Ahliyya Amman University, in Amman, the capital of Jordan. It was a life-changing experience. Every day was a new adventure – very different from my life in the US. While I was there, I studied US politics in the Middle East, the history of the Arab world, and Arabic language.

People often ask me what my favorite memory is, but it's difficult to answer because there are so many! I loved riding a camel in the Wadi Rum desert and I went on an amazing excursion to Petra. The countryside was beautiful and completely different from where I live in the United States. I also enjoyed the unique culture of Jordan. Of course, there were things that I sometimes found difficult, but everybody from Jordan was very understanding and friendly.

My recommendation for people who want to study abroad is to go to a country that is completely different from where you live and to stay as long as you can. I loved learning about another culture and I think studying abroad is a great experience.

Interviewer Do you like working there?

Neah Yes, I love it. The people are really nice to me. I'm making a lot of new friends.

Interviewer Is there anything you don't like?

Neah Well, we can't sit down, we're standing up all the time. So that's really hard.

Interviewer But, in general, you're happy?

Neah Oh, yes. And when my internship ends, they say I can work here in the summer! That's great for me. I really like working in a clothing store.

Interviewer What do you wear at work?

Neah We wear clothes from the store.

Interviewer Are the clothes that you're wearing today from Rue21?

Neah Yes, they are!

Miriam really liked her job – it was very interesting. I worked from home, so I was with the children a lot and I loved it. In general, life was good. It was cheap – cheaper than in the UK. We joined a sports club, where the children learned to swim, and I played a lot of tennis, one of my favorite sports.

The people in Durham were very friendly. They often invited us to their homes. It was easy to meet people at the sports club, or at the university where Miriam worked. And there were so many new places to see! On weekends, we visited some of the beautiful national parks. They were very different from English parks! In one park, there was a sign saying "Don't disturb the snakes" – Sacha loved it!

I also remember a trip to a country music festival at a blueberry farm. It was fantastic. First, we listened to the music, and then we picked a lot of blueberries – they're Elena's favorite fruit. But after that trip, she didn't want to eat a blueberry for at least two weeks!

We stayed in Durham for a year. After that, we returned to England because my wife's job finished. But we loved our life in the US, and we're thinking of going back there in maybe two or three years.
