

Word/Phrase	Part of speech	IPA (UK)	IPA (US)	Definition	Sample sentence
Abilities
cook	verb	kʊk		to prepare food and heat it so that it is ready to eat	I love to cook for friends on the weekend.
dance	verb	dɑːns	dæns	to move your body when you hear music	Will you dance with me?
do	verb	duː	du	to take part in an activity	I do yoga twice a week.
draw	verb	drɔː	drɔ	to make a picture with lines using a pen or pencil	Kids frequently draw their teachers.
drive	verb	draɪv		to control a vehicle like a car so that it moves somewhere	I sometimes drive to work.
juggle	verb	ˈdʒʌɡ(ə)l		to keep objects moving through the air by catching them as they fall and throwing them back into the air	It's very difficult to juggle three balls.
make	verb	meɪk		to create or produce something by working	Can I make you some coffee?
paint	verb	peɪnt		to create a picture of something using paints	I paint pictures of trees.
play	verb	pleɪ		to take part in a sport or a game	I play tennis every Thursday.
play	verb	pleɪ		to perform music, or to use an instrument to make music	Do you play the piano?
ride	verb	raɪd		to sit on a bicycle, motorcycle etc and control it as it moves along	You can't ride a bike in the shopping mall.
sing	verb	sɪŋ		to make music using your voice	John likes to sing in the shower.
ski	verb	skiː	ski	to move over snow on skis, as a sport or as a way of traveling	I ski in Switzerland every winter.
speak	verb	spiːk	spik	to be able to talk in a particular language	She can speak Italian and French.
Adjectives
awful	adjective	ˈɔːf(ə)l	ˈɔf(ə)l	very bad at doing something	He's an awful singer.
amazing	adjective	əˈmeɪzɪŋ		something surprising that is also very impressive	She's an amazing pianist.
bad	adjective	bæd		not good or skillful at something	Mike's a very bad driver – he goes too fast.
boring	adjective	ˈbɔːrɪŋ	ˈbɔrɪŋ	not interesting	That movie was boring – nothing happened.
difficult	adjective	ˈdɪfɪk(ə)lt	ˈdɪfɪkəlt	not easy to do or understand	Sometimes math is very difficult .
easy	adjective	ˈiːzi	ˈizi	not difficult to do or understand	Making a cake is easy !
good	adjective	ɡʊd		able to do something well	Jean is a very good swimmer.
great	adjective	ɡreɪt		very good, able to do something very well	Anthony is a great teacher.
healthy	adjective	ˈhelθi		not sick or unwell, physically or mentally	Ben's very healthy – he runs, swims and bikes.
interesting	adjective	ˈɪntrəstɪŋ		not boring, you want to know more about it	I'm reading a very interesting book.

Word/Phrase	Part of speech	IPA (UK)	IPA (US)	Definition	Sample sentence
OK	adjective	ˌəʊ'keɪ	oʊ'keɪ	between good and bad at something	He's OK at French, but not perfect.
talented	adjective	'tæləntɪd	'tæləntəd	very good at something	He's a talented actor.
terrible	adjective	'terəb(ə)l		very bad at doing something	John's a terrible teacher.
young	adjective	jʌŋ		someone who is young has lived for only a short time	They have two young children.