

Word/Phrase	Part of speech	IPA (UK)	IPA (US)	Definition	Sample sentence
Ordinal numbers
first	ordinal number	fɜː(r)st	fɜrst	before any others or before everything else	I was the first person to arrive in class today.
second	ordinal number	'sekənd		in the place or position counted as number two	She was the second person I met.
third	ordinal number	θɜː(r)d	θɜrd	in the place or position counted as number three	He's the third person to leave the company this month!
fourth	ordinal number	fɔː(r)θ	fɔrθ	in the place or position counted as number four	D is the fourth letter of the alphabet.
fifth	ordinal number	fɪfθ		in the place or position counted as number five	She came in fifth place in the race.
sixth	ordinal number	sɪksθ		in the place or position counted as number six	My apartment is on the sixth floor.
seventh	ordinal number	'sev(ə)nθ		in the place or position counted as number seven	July is the seventh month of the year.
eighth	ordinal number	ertθ		in the place or position counted as number eight	The mistake is on the eighth page of the document.
ninth	ordinal number	nainθ		in the place or position counted as number nine	The conference is on October ninth .
tenth	ordinal number	tenθ		in the place or position counted as number ten	I was tenth in the line for tickets.
twelfth	ordinal number	twelfθ		in the place or position counted as number 12	Their album was twelfth on this week's chart.
eighteenth	ordinal number	,eɪ'ti:nθ	,eɪ'tinθ	in the place or position counted as number 18	She celebrated her eighteenth birthday last week.
twentieth	ordinal number	'twentiəθ		in the place or position counted as number 20	There was a lot of technological change in the twentieth century.
thirty-first	ordinal number	'θɜː(r)ti fɜː(r)st	'θɜrti fɜrst	in the place or position counted as number 31	We usually get paid on the thirty-first of the month.
forty-second	ordinal number	'fɔː(r)ti 'sekənd	fɔrti 'sekənd	in the place or position counted as number 42	He scored in the forty-second minute, just before half time.
fifty-third	ordinal number	'fɪfti θɜː(r)d	'fɪfti θɜrd	in the place or position counted as number 53	It's our fifty-third wedding anniversary next year.
Everyday verbs
collect	verb	kə'lekt		to get and keep things	Some people like to collect stamps.
design	verb	dɪ'zaɪn		to decide how something will be made, including how it will work and what it will look like, and typically to make drawings of it	They asked the architect to design a building.
help	verb	help		to support someone or give them information so they can do something more easily	It feels good to help a friend.
paint	verb	peɪnt		to make a picture of something using paints	Can I paint a picture of you?

Word/Phrase	Part of speech	IPA (UK)	IPA (US)	Definition	Sample sentence
receive	verb	rɪ'si:v	rɪ'siv	to get something that someone gives or sends to you	Did you receive a present from Uncle Bob?
start	verb	sta:(r)t	start	to begin to do something	Start to run when you hear me say, 'Go'.
study	verb	'stʌdi		to learn about a subject by reading and by going to school, college, etc	I study history in college.
travel	verb	'træv(ə)l		to go on a trip or visit different places, especially places that are far away	We will travel to Boston next summer.