ABOUT

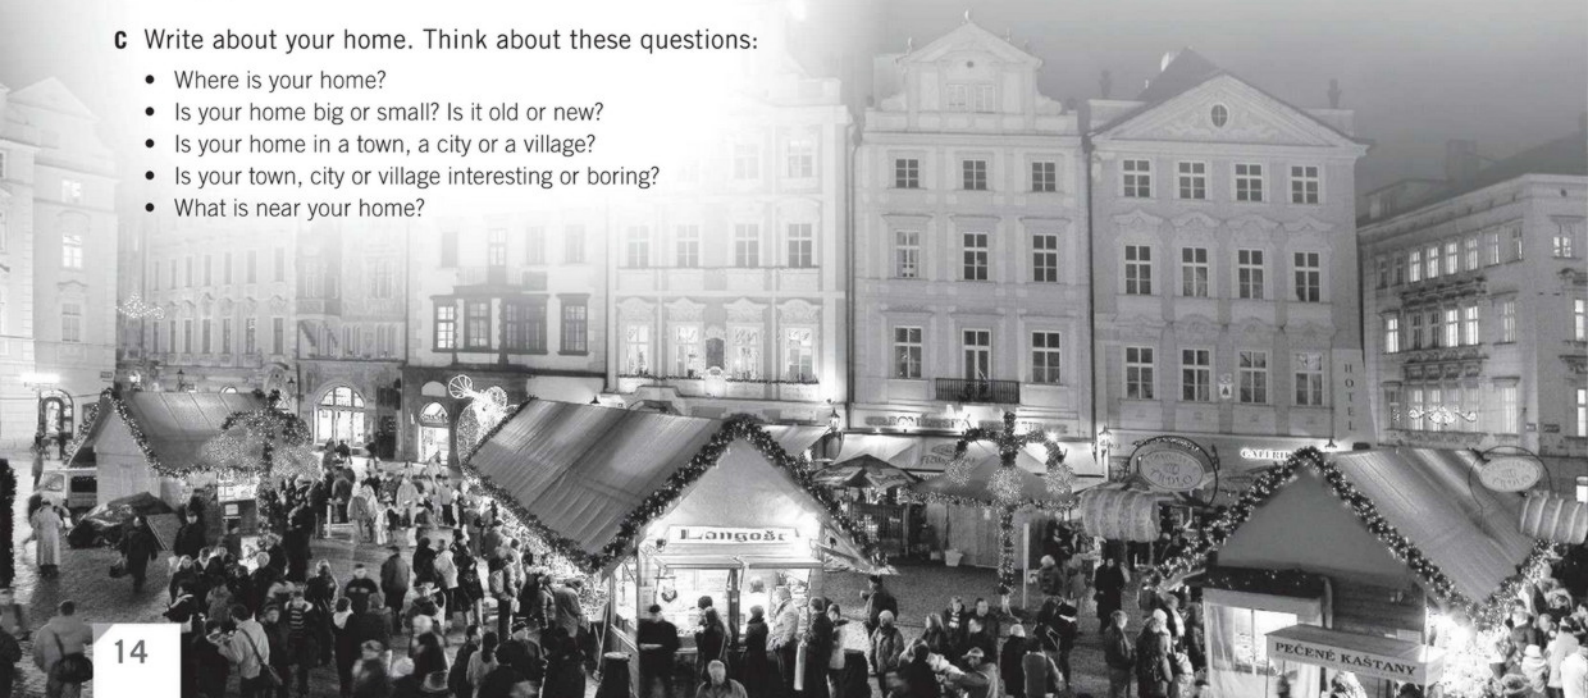

My name is Mark Smith and I work in Hull in England. Hull is a big city with 260,000 people. It's old and it has an interesting history. I'm a receptionist in an office in the centre of Hull. My office is in a nice part of the city. It's near a big park.

My home isn't in Hull, it's in Brough. Brough is a small town near Hull with 7,000 people. It's a nice town with a park, two supermarkets and a hotel. I'm married to Emily and we have two children.

Our house is in the centre of Brough. It's a small house and it's new. It isn't near the park, but it is near one of the supermarkets. I'm very happy here. I have a lot of friends in Brough and in Hull, and my job isn't boring!

- Where is your home?
- Is your home big or small? Is it old or new?
- Is your home in a town, a city or a village?

My name is Maria and I'm Italian. In Italy, people eat different foods. We like pasta and pizza, but we don't eat them every day. We like a lot of different meat and fish. And we eat a lot of fruit and vegetables.

In my family, we have three meals a day. Breakfast is at eight o'clock. We eat fette biscottate, a type of breakfast bread, and have coffee with milk. Italian people usually drink a lot of coffee!

On work days, my lunch is always at one o'clock. I never have lunch in my office. I usually have a panino (that's a sandwich) or a slice of pizza with my friends in a café near the office. At the weekend I have lunch at home with my family.

Dinner is the big meal of the day for a lot of Italians. In my family, we always have dinner at half past eight. We have rice or pasta, then fish with vegetables. We don't eat a lot of meat. After dinner, we usually have fruit and coffee, but at the weekend we sometimes have cake.

Hi Eileen,

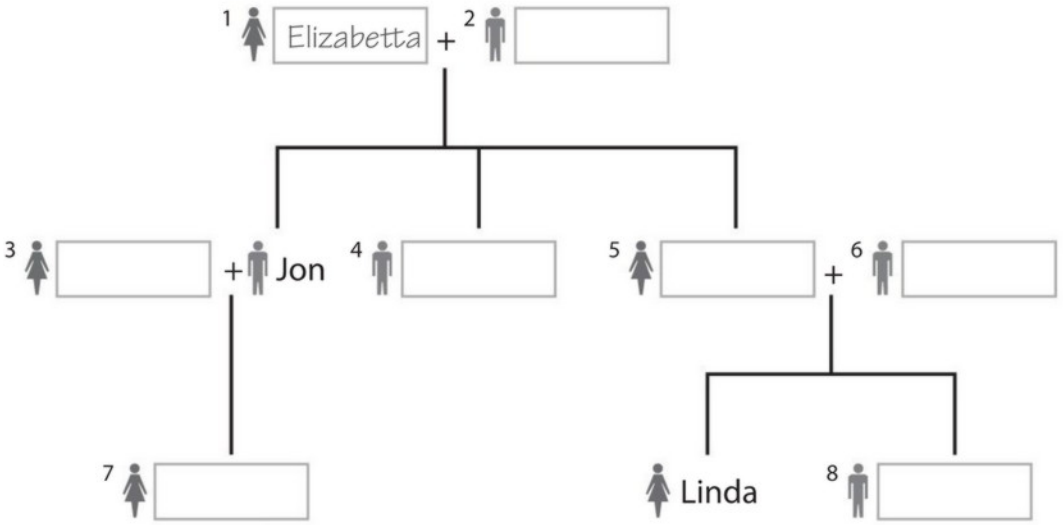

Thanks for your email. I love the photos of your family. You have a big family! My family is small. Here's a new photo of us on holiday.

I'm with my husband, Greg, our daughter, Linda, and our son, Jeff. My parents, Tom and Elizabetta, are in the photo, too. My dad is American. He's from San Francisco, but my mother comes from Warsaw in Poland. Greg and I live in Washington with our children. Greg works in an office and I'm a teacher (as you know). Greg's parents live in Washington, too, so we see them one or two days a week, but my mum and dad are in California. We usually have holidays with them.

I have two brothers, Daniel and Jon. They aren't in the photo. Daniel is an English teacher in Mexico City and Jon lives in Moscow. Jon's wife, Anna, is Russian and they have a daughter. Her name's Olga. We sometimes see them in the holidays. Olga is five and she speaks Russian and English very well.

Write soon and tell me more about your life in Edinburgh.

Hi Lexi

We're at the Station Hotel. It isn't a big new hotel near the station – it's an old station near the beach! It's great! The rooms are small but they're very good.

Our room is on the first floor. We have beautiful flowers in the room and there are lots of pillows and blankets on the beds. It isn't cheap but we're only here for three nights.

There are lots of people here. There aren't any empty rooms! All the people are very friendly and the manager's nice. In the evenings we have dinner in the Old Station restaurant. It's in the hotel. The food is good and an old man plays the guitar.

See you soon,

It has an ice cream shop and in summer I sometimes take my son to the park and we have ice cream.

I'm a student in New York, but I'm from Hamburg in Germany. I love my course but New York is expensive so I work in a cinema in the evenings and on Saturdays.

My day usually starts at 7:45 am when I get up and have breakfast. Then I go to my classes at the university. They start at 9:00 am and finish at 12:30 pm. There aren't any classes in the afternoon so I study in the university library. I have something to eat in the student restaurant and I walk to the cinema. My working hours are 6:00 pm to 11:30 pm from Monday to Friday, and 1:30 pm to 11:30 pm on Saturdays. Sunday is my free day and I play tennis or go to a museum with my friends.

My job is OK but I don't want to work six days a week. I get home late and I only have six or seven hours' sleep. Sometimes, I feel very tired in my classes and I want to sleep, which isn't good.

UNIT 7
Reading and listening extension

1 READING

a Read the article and match a–d to paragraphs 1–4.

a ☐ What I wear when I'm not at work
b ☐ Where I buy my clothes
c ☐ What I wear for special occasions
d ☐ My work clothes

b Read the article again. Are the sentences true or false?

1 Pete's uniform is blue.
2 The police officers' yellow jackets are useful.
3 Pete's friends like fashionable clothes.
4 His favourite colour is brown.
5 He has an expensive suit for special events.
6 He usually wears a dark grey shirt for special events.
7 Marks and Spencer is in the shopping mall.
8 Jane's favourite shop is the same as Pete's.

c Choose someone you know. Write a description of their clothes. Think about these questions:

- What clothes do they wear at different times of the day and different days of the week?
- What are their favourite colours?
- Where do they buy their clothes?

MY CLOTHES by Pete Hobbs

1 I don't have to worry about my work clothes. I'm a police officer and I have a uniform. I like the uniform. We wear a dark blue jacket, dark blue trousers and a white shirt. We also have big yellow police jackets to wear when we're outside in the street. These jackets are very useful because people can see that we are police officers.

2 I'm not very interested in fashion. My wife, Jane, says that my clothes are boring but most of my friends' clothes are the same as mine! When I'm not at work I like to wear comfortable clothes, for example jeans and a T-shirt or a jumper. I don't really have a favourite colour, but I try not to wear dark blue because it's the colour of my uniform. My favourite item of clothing is my old brown jacket.

3 I don't have many expensive clothes, but sometimes I go to special events, for example, when friends get married, and I need to wear something nice. I have a suit by the designer Tom Ford. It has dark grey trousers and a matching jacket. I usually wear this with a white shirt and tie.

4 I usually go shopping with Jane. We both like to go to the shopping mall in the centre of town. It has lots of shops and it's easy to find things. My favourite shop there is Marks and Spencer. Marks and Spencer's clothes are usually comfortable and they aren't very expensive. I buy all my clothes there but Jane's favourite shops are Next and Debenhams.

FRIDAY 9th JAN

I had a horrible day at work. The office was really busy. I was so happy to get home. My flatmates, Mel and Amy, wanted me to go to the theatre with them, but I was tired. They went out, but I watched an old film in my bedroom. It was a brilliant murder story, but I fell asleep before the end, so I don't know who the killer was!

SUNDAY 11th JAN

I got up late and had a long bath, then I watched a programme about Indian cookery. I was a bit hungry after the programme so I had cheese on toast – my favourite! I met Angela in town for lunch and then we went shopping. I bought a suitcase for our holiday in Ireland and Angela got some books. At 6:00 we met Mel and Amy for a pizza. We were in the restaurant till 10:00!

MONDAY 12th JAN

I got up at 4:00 this morning. I was really tired, but our plane to Ireland was at 6:30. I went to the airport in a taxi. Angela was already there with the tickets. It only took seventy minutes to travel from London to Dublin. We had breakfast on the plane, then Angela read one of her new books and I looked out of the window. We had a tour of Dublin today, and now we're at our hotel, which is lovely!

WE ASKED OUR READERS TO SEND IN THEIR TRAVEL STORIES. HERE ARE SOME OF THEM:

Billy, 35

Four years ago I went to London for a job interview. Trains are expensive in the UK, so I went by bus. The journey was about five hours. I didn't have anything to read so I started talking to the woman in the seat next to me. Her name was Milly. We got married last year and now we have a baby boy!

Monica, 27

I was in the USA on business and I had some free time, so I flew to New York to visit my friend, Chris. I didn't tell her because I wanted to surprise her. I arrived but Chris wasn't at home. The man in the flat next door said she was on holiday! I got a taxi back to the airport but it started to snow and there were no flights, so I slept at the airport. It was awful!

Lee, 20

In the university holiday, my friend and I decided to drive to Budapest for a music concert. We didn't have a map, but we didn't think it was important. The journey was fun and we arrived late at night. In the morning, we looked around the city, but it didn't look like the photos of Budapest on the Internet. Hi Jenny,

Thanks for your email. I hope you're enjoying your holiday in Japan. I'm in Hamburg in Germany for two weeks. Mum and Dad sent me here to do a German course. I didn't really want to come!

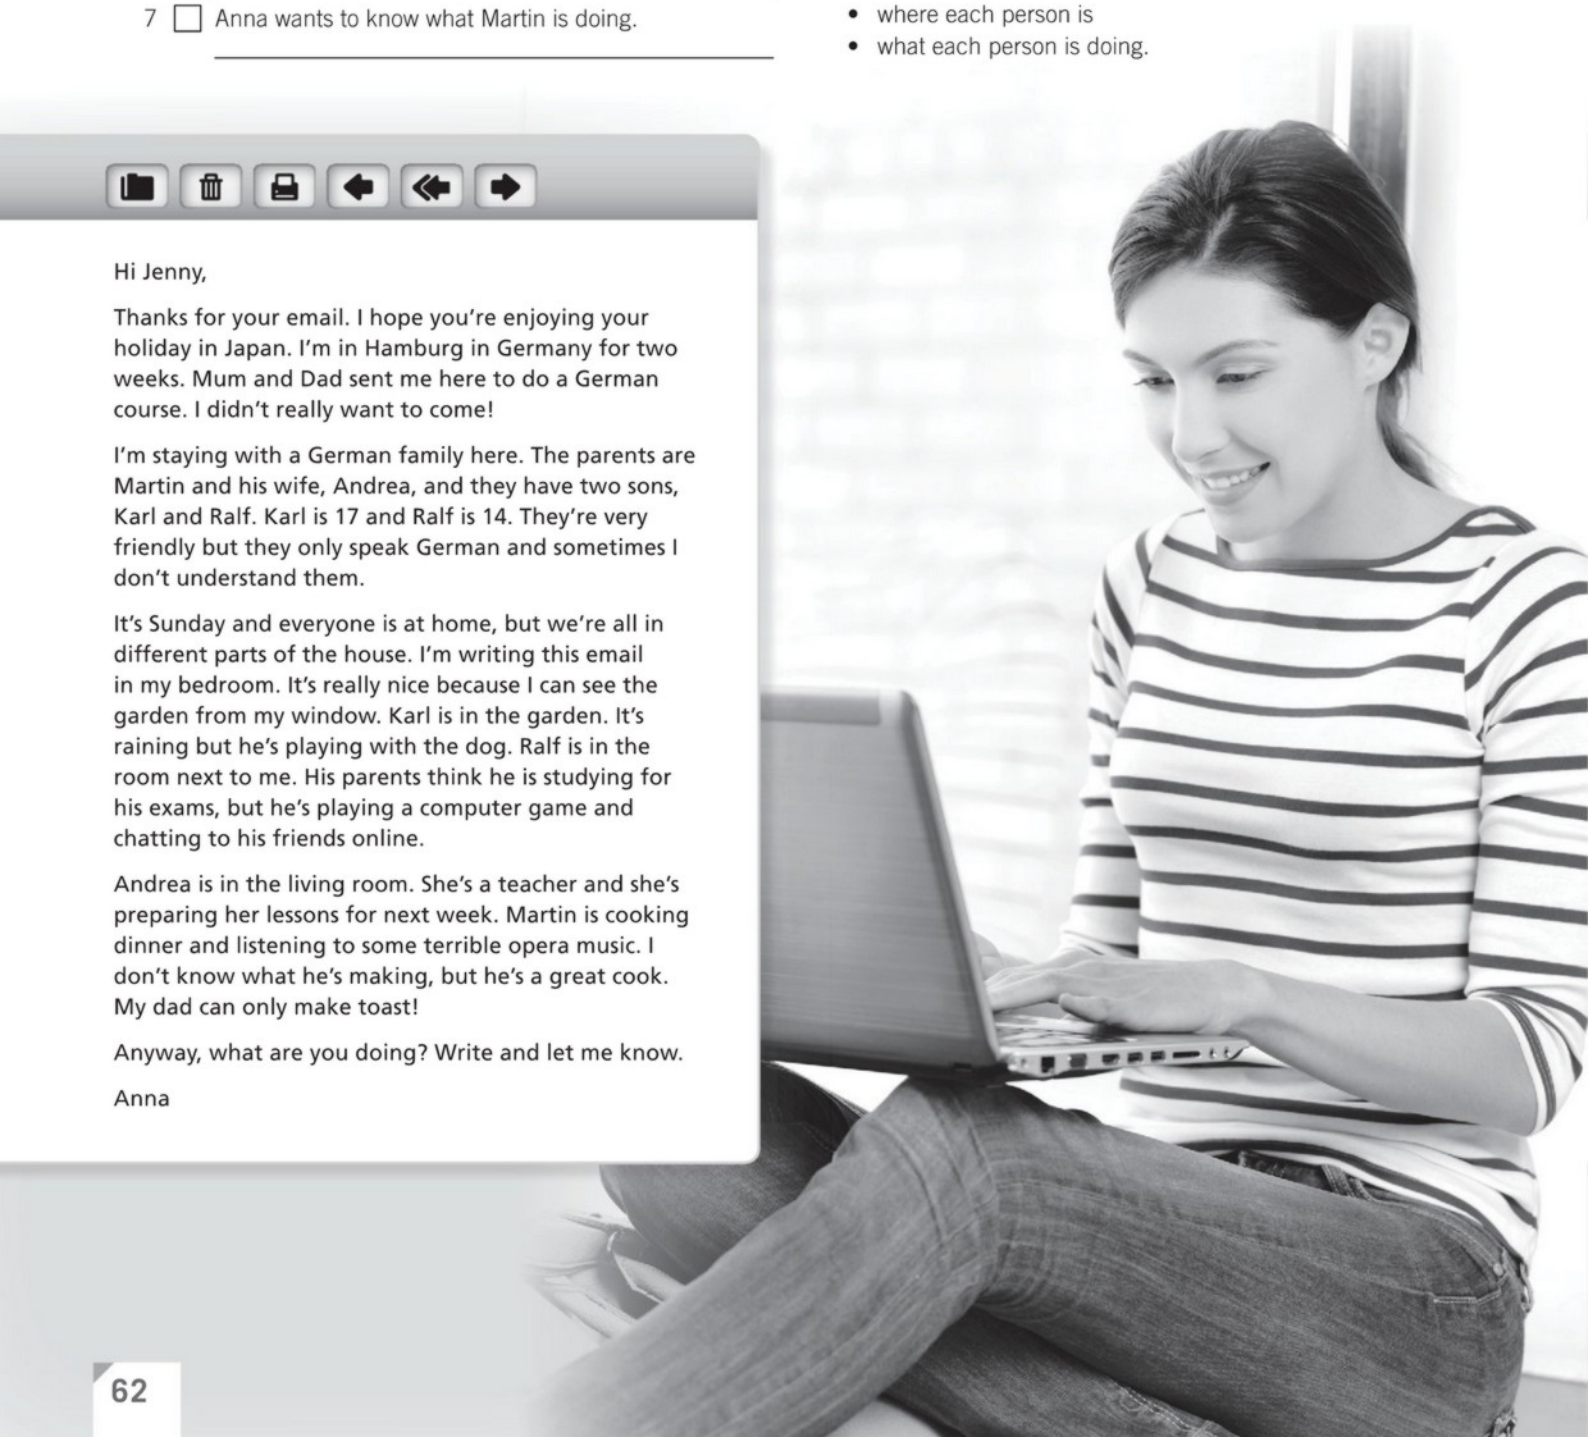

I'm staying with a German family here. The parents are Martin and his wife, Andrea, and they have two sons, Karl and Ralf. Karl is 17 and Ralf is 14. They're very friendly but they only speak German and sometimes I don't understand them.

It's Sunday and everyone is at home, but we're all in different parts of the house. I'm writing this email in my bedroom. It's really nice because I can see the garden from my window. Karl is in the garden. It's raining but he's playing with the dog. Ralf is in the room next to me. His parents think he is studying for his exams, but he's playing a computer game and chatting to his friends online.

Andrea is in the living room. She's a teacher and she's preparing her lessons for next week. Martin is cooking dinner and listening to some terrible opera music. I don't know what he's making, but he's a great cook. My dad can only make toast!

Anyway, what are you doing? Write and let me know.

Anna

Hi Gerhard,

Thanks for your email – it was good to hear from you.

I started university here in Bristol six weeks ago now and it's going really well. The university's fantastic and Bristol's an exciting city. It's also an expensive city. I'd like to find a job in a shop next year because I really need some money!

As you know, I'm studying IT. It's a very interesting course and the teachers are good. There's lots of work to do but there are also lots of things to do in my free time. I'm learning to dance and I can now play volleyball quite well.

I'm making some new friends here. Simon and Annette are really nice. I met Simon at my dance class. He's a language student and he can speak Italian and German very well. He's also a good dancer and he helps me in the lessons. Annette is studying IT and we met in the university bookshop on the first day. We often study together in the evening.

The people here are really nice, but I miss my family at home and I miss my friends too.

Yaz

LAST NIGHT'S TV

People's Lives is a popular TV programme on Channel 12. The programme helps people find out about their family history.

Last night, the programme was about Fiona Davies and her grandmother, Beth. Fiona didn't know her grandmother well because Beth died when Fiona was two years old. People's Lives found out that Beth was from Cardiff in Wales. She was born there in 1922 and had six brothers and sisters. The family was poor and Beth went to England when she was 17. She got a job in a hospital in London.

Beth worked at the hospital for six years, then she studied at university to be a doctor. She was 32 when she finished university and 33 when she married Fiona's grandfather, James. James was a businessman from Manchester.

Beth and James were very happy for three years and they had a son, but then James died.

Beth left the UK and went to South Africa on a ship with her son. She worked as a doctor there and started a hospital for women. In 1972, Beth returned to Cardiff to teach at the university. She taught students who wanted to be doctors. Beth died in Wales in 1984.

It was an interesting programme and Fiona was very happy to know more about her grandmother. Next week it is the turn of Frank Kendal to find out about his grandparents. Don't forget to watch!

Reading and listening extension

NEW YEAR, NEW ME
BY MATT SIMPSON

1 Today is January 1st – a good day to start my new life! Some people talk about changing their lives, but they don't do anything. I'm not going to talk about changing my life. I have a list of things I want to do and I'm going to do all of them.

2 What am I going to do first? Well, I usually get up, go to work, come home, have dinner and then watch TV until it's time to go to bed. I never do any sport. From tomorrow, I'm going to get up early every day and go for a run. I'm also going to use the swimming pool at the gym after work.

3 I'm not going to stay at home every evening. I'm going to visit the college and get some information about language courses. I'm interested in Japanese. I also want to do a cookery class. I don't know how to cook and I just eat in restaurants or buy pizzas. At the weekend, I go home to my mum for meals!

4 I spend a lot of money on clothes, but I'm not going to buy any more. I'm going to put the money in the bank. My girlfriend and I want to travel and see new places. We're planning to leave our jobs in September and travel around the world.

GRACE Morning, Matt. How was your weekend?
MATT It was good, thanks, Grace. My wife was at work on Saturday, so I was at home with the children. I think they were a bit bored. But we went to a concert in the park yesterday. There were a lot of people.
G Really? How was the concert?
M It was fun. The bands were very good.
G Was it expensive?
M Well, that was the best thing. A family ticket was only £10.00! We had a great day. There was a lot to see and do. Anyway, how was your weekend?
G Oh, it was good. I was in Barcelona.
M Wow! Was it your first visit to Barcelona?
G No, my sister moved there four years ago, and I often visit her.
M Was it hot?
G It wasn't hot, but it wasn't very cold either. On Saturday we went to a restaurant on the beach. We had a lovely meal there, but the restaurant was empty! There weren't any other people.
M What did you do yesterday?
G We went to the National Museum. It was really interesting. We saw so many things.
M How much was it?
G It was free. You don't have to pay to go into some museums on Sunday.

Man in street Er, yes. OK.
R Thank you. Right, my first question is: When was your last holiday?
M Oh, in autumn. We usually go on holiday in summer, but this year we went in autumn.
R Did you stay in the UK or did you go to another country?
M I went to Faro in Portugal with my wife. The children didn't want to come, so they stayed at home.

M Well my wife doesn't like flying, so we went by ship from England to Spain, then we took a train to Faro.
R How long was your holiday?
M Three weeks.
R Did you stay in a hotel?
M No, we didn't. One of our friends has a house near the beach and we stayed there. It was our second holiday there.
R Do you speak Portuguese?
M No, but I learned a few phrases before we left England.
R Why didn't you stay in the UK for your holiday?
M Because Portugal has better weather! England is often cold and rainy in autumn.
R OK, and my next question ...

Hi Marco
I'm at the hotel. It's very old but the room is very big (and it has wi-fi). There isn't a bath but the shower is good and there's lots of hot water. The name of the hotel is the Beach Hotel but it's near the station and a big cinema. There aren't any shops but there's a café and two restaurants. The restaurants are expensive but the café is very cheap and it's good.

Hi Alexei
Thanks for your email.

I'm in Manchester at the moment. I'm studying English at a small language school in the city centre. It's going OK but it's quite difficult for me to learn all the new words. The pronunciation is also difficult but the lessons are always fun because the teacher's very good. His name's Jeff and he's from London.

There are nine students in my class. We all come from different countries. We usually meet for a drink in the evening. It's a good time to practise English.

Goodbye for now.

Thanks, I'd love to come but I'm busy on Saturday. I'm at work in the morning and I'm going to watch my brother in a basketball match in the afternoon. But I'm free on Sunday and Oliver and Jorges are always free on Sundays. What do you think? Is Sunday OK for you?
