8 She likes / doesn't like coffee.
9 Juliet lives / doesn't live in Dublin.
10 Juliet always / never sees Katie on her birthday.

My best friend's name is Katie. She lives in Dublin, in Ireland. She's 29 and she's single. Katie's always very busy because she has two jobs. She's a music journalist for a newspaper in Dublin. She's also a singer in a rock band.

In her free time she goes to the cinema. She also eats out a lot. She doesn't eat meat because she's a vegetarian. She loves Chinese and Italian food. She also drinks six espressos a day!

I don't see Katie very much because I live in London, but we're always together on our birthdays because they're on the same day!

HELP WITH WRITING because and also

LONDON'S TOP FIVE PLACES

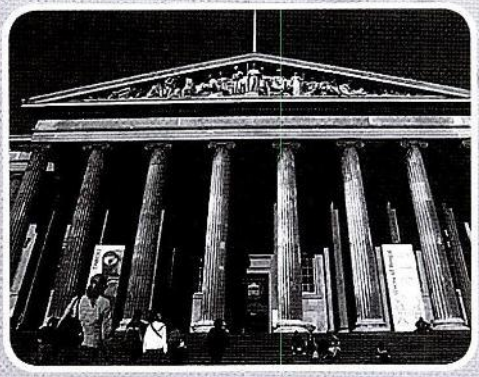

There are hundreds of things to see and do in London. Here are our top five places for tourists to visit.

1 The London Eye

The London Eye is a great place to visit. You can see a lot of London's famous buildings from the top because it's 135m high! There's also a shop and two good cafés. In the summer the London Eye is open from 10.00 a.m. to 9.30 p.m. every day. Adults (16+) £18.90, Children (4–15) £11.10, Children (0–4) free.

Waterloo

2 The British Museum

The British Museum is the best museum in London. There are a lot of interesting things to see and the building is also very beautiful. There are some nice cafés, a very good restaurant and a bookshop. The museum is open from 10.00 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. every day – and it's free!

Tottenham Court Road

3 Covent Garden

Covent Garden is a big market in the centre of the city. It's a great place to go shopping and it's very popular with tourists. You can also see some of the best street entertainers* in London. There are a lot of nice places to eat in Covent Garden and it's also near London's theatres and cinemas.

Covent Garden

= tube station

street entertainers* = people who play music, sing, etc. in the street for money

b Read about Charlie and Rob. Are these sentences true (T) or false (F)?

1 Charlie and Rob are brothers. T
2 They like the same music.
3 They both like watching DVDs.
4 They don't like tennis.
5 Rob likes getting up early.
6 Charlie doesn't like cats.
7 Rob doesn't like shopping for clothes.
8 Charlie eats burgers and chips every day.

My brother's name is Rob and we both like a lot of the same things. We both like the same bands and we usually go to concerts together. We're both very busy in the week, but I go to Rob's flat at the weekend and we watch DVDs together. We also play tennis every Sunday morning, but Rob's always late because he hates getting up early!

Rob and I are also very different. He doesn't like cats, but I love them. And I love shopping for clothes, but Rob hates it. He usually wears a T-shirt, jeans and trainers! And we don't like the same food. I usually eat vegetables and fruit, and he eats burgers and chips every day! I think Rob is the best brother in the world and I love him very much.

HELP WITH WRITING
Sentences with and, but and object pronouns

2 We don't usually repeat words in sentences with and and but. Look at these examples. Notice the object pronouns (it, them, etc.).

I love (shopping for clothes), but Rob hates (it).

Rob doesn't like (cats), but I love (them).

(Rob) is the best brother in the world and I love (him) very much.

3 Write sentences with and and but. Change the words in bold to object pronouns.

1 I love tennis. My sister hates tennis.
I love tennis, but my sister hates it.
2 Tom doesn't like dogs. I love dogs.
3 Anna's my best friend. I email Anna every day.
4 I love rock music. My sister doesn't like rock music.
5 Pete's my son. I love Pete very much.
6 I love horror films. My wife hates horror films.

HELP WITH WRITING

Word order (3): both and together

4 Read these rules and the examples.

- Both goes after be:
  We 're both very busy in the week.
- Both goes before other verbs:
  We both like the same bands.
- Together is usually at the end of the sentence: We watch DVDs together.

TIPS • Frequency adverbs (always, etc.) go after be and before other verbs:
Rob 's always late.
We usually go to concerts together.
• Phrases with every are usually at the end of the sentence:
He eats burgers and chips every day.

5 Read about Charlie and Rob again. Underline all the examples of both, together, frequency adverbs and phrases with every. Notice the word order.

6 Read about Daisy and Lisa. Put the words in brackets ( ) in the correct place in the sentences.

(both →) My daughter's name is Daisy and we both like a lot of the same things. (both, together →) We love clothes and sometimes go shopping. (both →) And we love black and white films. (usually, together →) On Sunday afternoons we watch an old film. With a big box of chocolates, of course!

Daisy and I are also very different. (it →) She doesn't like flying, but I love. (them →) And I like soap operas, but Daisy hates. (every evening →) I watch two soap operas. (it →) Daisy also loves cooking, but I hate. (every day →) In our home my husband cooks dinner! (her →) I think Daisy is the best daughter in the world and I love very much.

7 Read about Daisy and Lisa again. Find three things they both love.

Ollie and Jo in Mexico

Tuesday 25th July

Jo and I arrived in Mexico City at 7 a.m. on Sunday. We were very tired because we didn't sleep on the plane. When we arrived at our hotel, we slept for nine hours. Yesterday we went sightseeing in the centre. There are lots of beautiful buildings and some interesting markets. And we're both very happy because we're on holiday!

Thursday 27th July

Yesterday we went to Teotihuacan, an ancient city about 45 minutes away. It was amazing! We walked around the Pyramid of the Sun and Jo took some great photos. When we got back to Mexico City, we had dinner near the hotel. Jo can speak Spanish so she ordered the food. My Spanish is terrible!

Sunday 30th July

Hi again – we're in Cancún! We arrived two days ago and it's very hot here – about 38°C. The beaches in Cancún are very busy so yesterday we went to Isla Holbox, a small island about 16 km away. We loved Isla Holbox because it was very quiet. We watched the sunset and had dinner on the beach – the fish was fantastic!

BECAUSE AND SO

2 a Look at these sentences. Notice the difference between because and so.

1 a We were very tired because we didn't sleep on the plane.
  b We didn't sleep on the plane so we were very tired.
2 a Jo can speak Spanish so she ordered the food.
  b Jo ordered the food because she can speak Spanish.

TIP • We usually put because and so in the middle of the sentence.

WHEN

b Look at this sentence. Notice how we use when.

first second

When we arrived at our hotel, we slept for nine hours.

TIPS • We can put when at the beginning or in the middle of the sentence:
We slept for nine hours when we got to our hotel.
We usually use a comma (,) if when is at the beginning of the sentence:
When we got to our hotel, we slept for nine hours.
