Neil is from Liverpool. He was a clever child. His parents weren't rich and he wasn't at an expensive school, but he was happy. His dream was to be an astronaut. But at twenty-eight, his life was very different. He lived on the streets and life was difficult. Now he has a good job – he's a politician – and he has a house in a beautiful part of England. And he's happy again.

Suzy is from London. Her parents were very rich and she was at an expensive school. But she wasn't happy as a child because her parents weren't happy together. Her dream was to be married and have a family. And at twenty-eight she was married with two children. Now she helps people with their problems and she is happy. But she doesn't like the Seven Up! films.

The Brothers Grimm, Jacob and Wilhelm, were famous nineteenth century storytellers. They were both born in Hanau, Germany. Jacob was born in 1785 and Wilhelm in 1786. There were nine children in the family. After their father died, life was very difficult. Jacob and Wilhelm weren't rich, but with help from their mother's sister, they went to school. In 1805, they were both students at the University of Marburg. It was a small, but very famous university. The brothers were good students. They were interested in tales and started to collect them. Their first book, in 1812, was Children's and Household Tales. There were eighty-six stories in it. The stories weren't for children at first, but they loved them. Children's and Household Tales wasn't the only book that the brothers published, but it was the most popular.

I met my husband, John, when I was five years old! We knew each other because we went to the same school. I saw him again in a clothes shop in 2010. I was with a friend and he sold a jacket to her. He asked her for my phone number. Then he wrote me a text message. It said, 'Do you want to go out for a meal?' So he came to my house one evening and then we went out to a restaurant. We fell in love and got married in 2011.

I had a terrible day yesterday. I slept badly, so I got up very late. I had a quick shower, got dressed, and went to work. I got to the office two hours late. My boss was there, and he wasn't very happy. I started work immediately, but unfortunately, I forgot the time of my meeting with the team and missed the first half. After lunch, I got a phone call from the school. My daughter was ill. She had a really bad headache and felt sick, so we went to the doctor. On the way out I met an old friend, Cathy. She talked for about an hour so we missed the last bus home. I phoned my husband, but he was in a meeting and couldn't leave the office. So we waited for about two hours and finally got home at eight o'clock in the evening!

I didn't go to work yesterday – it was my day off. So I got up at about nine and had a big breakfast. Then I went shopping in the city centre. It was a beautiful day, so I cycled. I saw some nice hats and shoes in the shops, but I didn't buy them because they were expensive. At lunchtime, I met my friend, Helen, and we went for tea in a café. Then we visited the museum. We saw some really interesting objects from Peru. I got home at about 5 p.m. and my daughter, Elouise, and I started cooking dinner. It was a really nice day.
