

1 Complete the sentences with to be or being + the past participle of the verbs in brackets.

- My little brother always wants to be carried everywhere. (carry)
- I don't mind that I'm wrong. (tell)
- Did you enjoy all the sights? (show)
- It's more relaxing than to drive yourself. (drive)
- The angry guest demanded room with a better view. (give)
- on an exotic holiday sounds amazing. (take)
- Harriet would love, I'm sure. (invite)
- Do you remember to by your parents? (read)

2 Complete the sentences with the correct to infinitive passive or gerund passive form of the verbs in the box.

award catch fine sack see take

- Fred wants to be taken to Spain on holiday.
- I can't risk by my parents on the beach.
- I hope a prize for my eco-friendly invention.
- Margot wasn't expecting from her job so suddenly.
- Just imagine in a snowstorm on top of a mountain!
- Many companies avoid for the damage they cause the environment.

3 Complete the sentences with one word.

- Most people don't appreciate being lied to.
- I'm always happy to give receipts electronically these days.
- Are you looking forward to flown across the world next month?
- Everyone knows children shouldn't given too many sweets.
- Can you believe he came without been invited?
- Erin didn't wait to asked. She proposed to Alex herself.
- Boxing? No thanks. I don't feel like hit today.
- I think your arm ought be seen by a doctor straight away.

4 Rewrite the sentences in the passive.

- Do I need to print these tickets?
..... Do these tickets need to be printed?
- You must add all passenger information to the booking before travel.
.....
- My dog loves it when people stroke him.
.....
- I have never tolerated people shouting at me.
.....
- I'm only asking to you to give me another chance.
.....
- Clive is too clever for that old trick to fool him.
.....
- After they told us we were at the wrong terminal, we ran to Terminal Two.
.....
- I don't like the idea of a skiing holiday but you could persuade me.
.....

5 Complete the conversation using the verbs in the box in the active or passive form.

be give know see send sound record
tell verify win

- Amy: Can you imagine ¹ being told that you've won a round-the-world trip?
- Will: That would be amazing.
- Amy: Well it would, yes, if it ² true.
- Will: What do you mean?
- Amy: So my parents ³ a letter last week telling them that they ⁴ this luxury trip to 'the world's greatest eco-lodges'. However, before the prize could ⁵ to them, their bank details needed ⁶ by their accounts team.
- Will: That ⁷ like a complete scam.
- Amy: Absolutely.
- Will: So what did they do?
- Amy: My dad phoned them up, and he kept them talking for an hour in order to waste their time. Little ⁸ the scammer, however, that the call ⁹ also and broadcast live on my dad's social media channel. In the last week, the video ¹⁰ by about half a million people.

1

- 2 being told
- 3 being shown
- 4 to be driven
- 5 to be given
- 6 being taken
- 7 to be invited
- 8 being read

2

- 2 being seen
- 3 to be awarded
- 4 to be sacked
- 5 being caught
- 6 being fined

3

- 2 to be given
- 3 to being flown
- 4 shouldn't be given
- 5 without having been
- 6 wait to be asked
- 7 feel like being hit
- 8 ought to be seen

4

- 2 All passenger information must be added to the booking before travel.
- 3 My dog loves being stroked.
- 4 I have never tolerated being shouted at.
- 5 I'm only asking to be given another chance.
- 6 Clive is too clever to be fooled by that old trick.
- 7 After being told we were at the wrong terminal, we ran to Terminal Two.
- 8 I don't like the idea of a skiing holiday, but I could be persuaded.

5

- 2 were
- 3 were sent
- 4 had won
- 5 be given
- 6 to be verified
- 7 sounds
- 8 did (the scammer) know
- 9 was (also) being recorded
- 10 has been seen