 Not so very long ago, (1) was something only the rich could afford to do.
 But the package holiday allowed large numbers of people to (2) for the first time.
 When low-cost airlines made (3) even cheaper, travel began to seem almost as if it were a right rather than an aspiration. And yet we rarely ask ourselves why we are so obsessed by holidays.
 Are we simply looking for another set of photographs to (5) to Instagram? With (6) doing the same thing, even when we think we are going off the beaten track, we discover that everyone else is there too. But is our (7) of a holiday ever the same as its reality? In recent years, the environmental impact of jetting (8) has become a much bigger issue. Perhaps it is time for a more radical solution: going on holiday in (9) It may be better for the planet and may also help us discover that there are many places to enjoy not so (10)
