

1 Choose the correct options to complete the sentences. In two sentences both options are correct.

- Thanks for trying to cheer me up / cheer up me.
- Can you turn down the TV / turn the TV down, please.
- We ran into Mary / ran Mary into the other day.
- I have to look after my younger sister / look younger sister after on Wednesday.
- Peter feels like he's let down you / let you down.
- People say I take after my dad / take my dad after.
- Are you looking forward party to / looking forward to the party?
- A small fire could burn down a forest / burn a forest down.

2 Complete the replies to the questions with phrasal verbs in the box and a pronoun.

drop off ~~fill in~~ hand in pay off put away
take back tire out throw away

- 'What do I have to do with this form?'
'You have to fill it in and leave it in that box.'
- 'Have you seen my shoes?'
'I lost them. They're in that drawer.'
- 'Did you eat that banana?'
'No, I threw it away. It was mouldy.'
- 'Hi. Are you with Julia?'
'Yes, I'm just waiting at school. Did you want to speak to her?'
- 'How do the jeans feel?'
'A bit too tight. I think I'll have to change them and change them.'
- 'Have you still got that bank loan?'
'Not any more. I paid it off.'
- 'Do you like speaking French all day?'
'Yes, but it tires me out. It's exhausting.'
- 'Did you finish that assignment?'
'Yes. I handed it in yesterday.'

3 Rewrite the parts of the sentences in bold with a phrasal verb in the box. Make any other changes required.

call off get rid of get through give back ~~look up to~~ put down put out put up with

- I've always admired her for her leadership skills.
looked up to her
- If you don't return my pen, I'll tell the teacher.
give it back
- We can't play the match in the snow. We'll have to abandon it.
cancel it
- It's so noisy here. I can't tolerate it any more.
put up with it

- The firefighters managed to extinguish the fire quickly.
put out the fire

- A good friend will never insult you.
put you down

- It was a dangerous experience but we survived it.
got through it

- Those scissors are very old. You should discard them.
get rid of them

4 Correct the mistakes in the sentences. Two sentences are correct.

-  Sometimes you have to face up reality.
X face up to reality
- I ran into her at the bowling alley.
I bumped into her at the bowling alley.
- I think we should go the answers over now.
I think we should go over the answers now.
- For the end of the year my class is putting a show.
putting on a show.
- Are you looking forward to spend a week away with your family?
I'm looking forward to spending a week away with my family.
- The news was so incredible we couldn't take it in.
The news was so incredible we couldn't take it in.
- She said she's going to pick up that later.
She said she's going to pick that up later.
- This is town where my mother brought up.
This is the town where my mother brought me up.

5 Complete the text with the correct form of the phrasal verbs. Add pronouns if necessary.

In 1973, a chimpanzee called Nim Chimpsky ¹ took part in (take part) an experiment called Project Nim. A psychologist, Herbert Terrace, wanted to ² find out (find out) if an ape could learn human sign language. Chimpsky, who ³ was named after (be named after) the linguist Noam Chomsky, ⁴ grew up (grow up) with a human family in New York City. It was a chaotic situation and the chimp was constantly breaking things. But could he really learn words, ⁵ pick up (pick up) the way humans do, and use them? Sadly not. Terrace concluded that Nim was merely imitating humans and would never be able to ⁶ get across any complex message (get across) because he had no grammar. Terrace ⁷ gave up (give up) on the experiment in 1977 and Nim ⁸ went on (go on) to live a very different life with other primates.

1

- 2 both options are correct
- 3 ran into Mary
- 4 look after my younger sister
- 5 let you down
- 6 take after my dad
- 7 looking forward to the party
- 8 both options are correct

2

- 2 put them away
- 3 threw it away
- 4 dropping her off
- 5 take them back
- 6 paid it off / have paid it off
- 7 tires me out
- 8 handed it in

3

- 2 give my pen back / give my pen back
- 3 call it off
- 4 put up with it
- 5 put out the fire / put the fire out
- 6 put you down
- 7 got through it
- 8 get rid of them

4

- 2 ✓
- 3 X go over the answers
- 4 X putting on a show / putting a show on
- 5 X - to spending
- 6 ✓
- 7 X pick that up
- 8 X grew up / was brought up

5

- 2 find out
- 3 was named after
- 4 grew up
- 5 pick them up
- 6 get (any complex message) across
- 7 gave up on
- 8 went on