

1 Complete the sentences with the phrases in the box. There is one extra phrase.

neither of whom the popularity of which ~~where~~ when whereby who whom whose why

- The Olive Garden is a restaurant where celebrities are often seen hanging out.
- O'Connell, mother was a theatre director, is to star in a brand-new biopic on the Royal Family.
- I don't understand people are obsessed with celebrities.
- The reason he's so famous is a mystery to me.
- She's the most creative person with I've had the pleasure to work.
- It's a huge digital platform, is increasing year upon year.
- The process plants convert sunlight into chemical energy is called photosynthesis.
- Smith and Gutierrez, had been nominated before, took the prizes for Best Actor and Best Director.

2 Re-write the sentences with a relative clause. Add relative pronouns where necessary.

- Van Hegl wanted to return to his old, anonymous life. That was understandable.
Van Hegl wanted to return to his old, anonymous life, which was understandable.
- The cast spent three months filming in India. The majority of the cast were not trained actors.
.....
- The singer is coming to Mexico in April. Her fans are the most devoted in the world.
.....
- The Staples Center is located in Los Angeles. It hosts many big celebrity events.
.....
- The sibling was Elijah. The pressure of fame was hardest for him.
.....
- Many celebrities use fake names. The purpose of that is to keep the paparazzi away.
.....

3 Complete the sentences A, B and C with the passive, gerund, and having + past participle forms of the verbs in the box.

live record speak want

- A Living in London, I spend half my time travelling from one side of the city to the other.

B Never by myself before, I felt very lonely at first.

C in by half a dozen film stars, Nine Acre Mansion overlooks the Hollywood Hills.
- A our previous two albums in Abbey Road Studios, we wanted to try somewhere different this time.

B at home with her brother, I Will is the most-streamed song of the year.

C While these songs, we had a feeling that fans were really going to connect to them.
- A by police for burglary, the suspect was last seen in Hull.

B to meet her since I was a teenager, I nearly fainted when she took a selfie with me.

C Without to be rude, can I have that last slice of cake?
- A The main language at the time was French.

B I get incredibly nervous to people who are even slightly famous.

C to everyone involved, we now have clear picture of what happened.

4 Correct the mistakes in the sentences. Some sentences are correct.

- I have a friend who ~~he~~ has met John Boyega.
X who has met ...
- Not seeing the point in continuing, Tess gave up acting.
- Fame is something that it can drive people crazy.
.....
- The pressures these days are immense comparing with ten years ago.
- Mellberg, whose co-stars are animals, said making the film was a crazy experience.
- I can't stand people whom write comments criticising celebrities.
- I'd like to thank my parents, without whose guidance I would not be here today.
- The way she treated her fans is something that we can all learn.

1

- 2 whose
- 3 who
- 4 why
- 5 whom
- 6 the popularity of which
- 7 whereby
- 8 neither of whom

when is extra

2

- 2 The cast, the majority of whom were not trained actors, spent three months filming in India.
- 3 The singer, whose fans are the most devoted in the world, is coming to Mexico in April.
- 4 The Staples Center, which hosts many big celebrity events, is located in Los Angeles.
- 5 The sibling for whom the pressure of fame was hardest was Elijah.
- 6 Many celebrities use fake names, the purpose of which is to keep the paparazzi away.

3

- 1
 - B having lived
 - C Lived
- 2
 - A Having recorded
 - B Recorded
 - C recording
- 3
 - A Wanted
 - B Having wanted
 - C wanting
- 4
 - A spoken
 - B speaking
 - C Having spoken

4

- 2 ✓
- 3 X ... that can drive...
- 4 X ...immense compared with / to...
- 5 ✓
- 6 X ... people who write comments...
- 7 ✓
- 8 X ...we can all learn from.