

1 Complete the puzzle to find the mystery word. Write a definition for the mystery word.

- 1 to be forgotten
- 2 not clearly expressed, known or decided
- 3 a sudden, clear memory of a past event or time
- 4 to find and bring back something
- 5 the most important pieces of information
- 6 a difference between two things that should be the same
- 7 to put something or someone in a position secretly, in order to deceive someone
- 8 to cause something to start
- 9 to invent or produce something false in order to deceive someone

10

2 Find and correct the mistakes in the sentences.

- 1 The suspect's bank account details were ~~triggered~~ from the bank within 24 hours. retrieved
- 2 I'm sorry I'm late, it had completely made my mind that the meeting was today.
- 3 There is a large flashback between the suspect's story and that of the key witness.
- 4 I can't believe Tim retrieved that story about his brother so you would feel sorry for him.
- 5 Have you had any plants about the accident recently?
- 6 The police discovered that the evidence had been slipped in his flat in order to ensure he was arrested.
- 7 Please rewrite your essay slowly and carefully, I'm afraid I couldn't make slip of your handwriting.

- 8 Don't make gist claims in your essays, I'm looking for clear arguments supported by specific examples.

- 9 Experts believe the avalanche was fabricated by a group of skiers who skied off the main slope.

- 10 I'm afraid I missed today's lecture, can you tell me the vague of it?

3 Choose the correct options to complete the text.

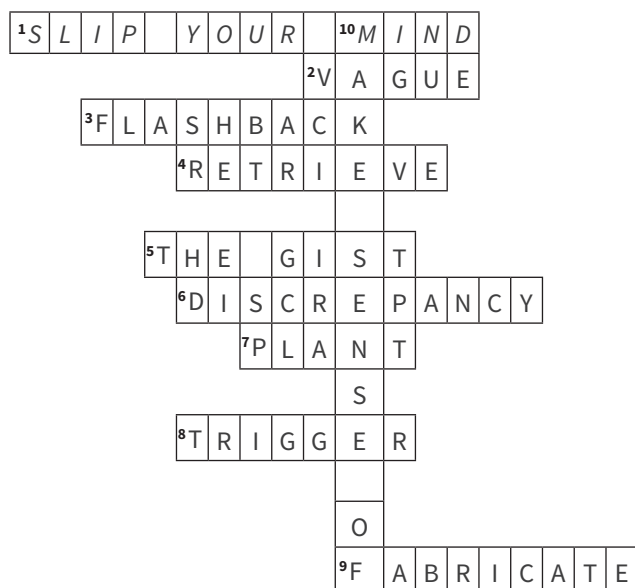

I currently work part-time in a café owned by a friend of my uncle. I started working there because I thought they were ¹~~understaffed~~ / overstaffed / unstaffed and needed extra workers. However, now that I've been there for a couple of weeks, I believe I was ²*disled* / misled / reled. It seems that the café owner has a reputation for being ³*underconsiderate* / inconsiderate / disconsiderate towards his staff and that doesn't surprise me. He is very ⁴*disrespectful* / misrespectful / overrespectful to everyone. He even shouts at them in front of customers which is very ⁵*disprofessional* / underprofessional / unprofessional. I also understand the salaries are very low and everyone is ⁶*outpaid* / repaid / underpaid. In addition, the food is very expensive but not very good. For example, certain dishes are often returned as customers say the meat is ⁷*recooked* / undercooked / outcooked. Now, I am ⁸*overconsidering* / reconsidering / misconsidering my situation and I'm going to quit.

4 Complete the sentences with the correct form of the words in the box.

apply ~~charged~~ dated grow grown introduce protective qualified sell understanding

- 1 The menu said the steak was $20 but the bill shows $25, I think you've been overcharged.
- 2 I think her mother is rather of her which is why she's not very independent.
- 3 I didn't get accepted to college this year but I'm not giving up, I'll next year.
- 4 This candidate has a PhD, I think they're a little for the job as an office clerk.
- 5 Nick always loved reading comics as a child, I can't believe he's that now.
- 6 I think our company should paid overtime rather than giving us time off for working late.
- 7 I think there has been a big about exactly what this project entails, so I'll explain it again.
- 8 This office looks so now, it really is time it was refurbished.
- 9 The lettuce was ruined by the storm, so we had to it and it's almost ready for picking now.
- 10 Why do you think this particular product is all the others?

1

10 to understand something

2

- 2 made slipped
- 3 flashback discrepancy
- 4 retrieved fabricated
- 5 plants flashbacks
- 6 slipped planted
- 7 slip sense
- 8 gist vague
- 9 fabricated triggered
- 10 vague gist

3

- 2 misled
- 3 inconsiderate
- 4 disrespectful
- 5 unprofessional
- 6 underpaid
- 7 undercooked
- 8 reconsidering

4

- 2 overprotective
- 3 reapply
- 4 overqualified
- 5 outgrown
- 6 reintroduce
- 7 misunderstanding
- 8 outdated
- 9 regrow
- 10 outselling