

1 Complete the puzzle to find the mystery word.

- 1 to be forgotten
- 2 not clearly expressed, known or decided
- 3 a sudden, clear memory of a past event or time
- 4 to find and bring back something
- 5 the most important pieces of information
- 6 a difference between two things that should be the same
- 7 to put something or someone in a position secretly, in order to deceive someone
- 8 to cause something to start
- 9 to invent or produce something false in order to deceive someone

10

2 Complete the sentences with appropriate words and phrases from Exercise 1. You may need to change the form of the verbs.

- 1 The suspect's bank account details were retrieved from the bank within 24 hours.
- 2 I'm sorry I'm late, it completely that the meeting was today.
- 3 There is a large between the suspect's story and that of the key witness.
- 4 I can't believe Tim that story about his brother so you would feel sorry for him.
- 5 Have you had any about the accident recently?
- 6 The police discovered that the evidence in his flat in order to ensure he was arrested.
- 7 Please rewrite your essay slowly and carefully, I'm afraid I couldn't your handwriting.
- 8 Don't make claims in your essays. I'm looking for clear arguments supported by examples.
- 9 Experts believe the avalanche by a group of skiers who skied off the main slope.
- 10 I'm afraid I missed today's lecture, so can you tell me of it?

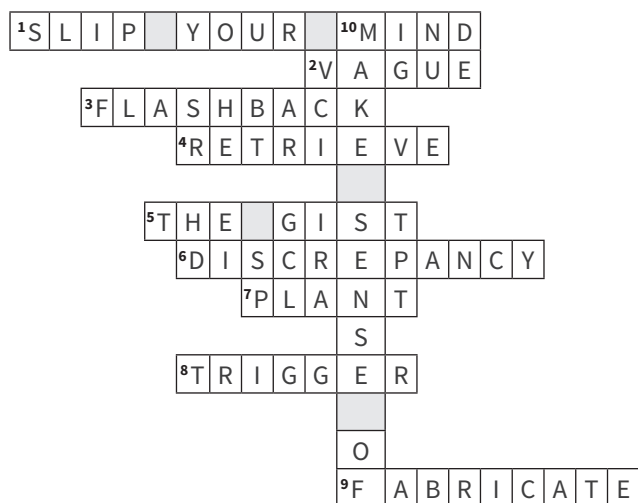

3 Choose the correct options to complete the text.

I currently work part-time in a café owned by a friend of my uncle. I started working there because I thought they were ¹understaffed / overstaffed and needed extra workers. However, now that I've been there for a couple of weeks, I believe I was ² disled / misled. It seems that the café owner has a reputation for being ³ underconsiderate / inconsiderate towards his staff and that doesn't surprise me. He is very ⁴ disrespectful / misrespectful to everyone. He even shouts at them in front of customers which is very ⁵ disprofessional / unprofessional. I also understand the salaries are very low and everyone is ⁶ outpaid / underpaid. In addition, the food is very expensive but not very good. For example, certain dishes are often returned, as customers say the meat is ⁷ recooked / undercooked. Now, I am ⁸ overconsidering / reconsidering my situation and I'm going to quit.

4 Complete the sentences with the correct form of the word in brackets.

- 1 The menu said the steak was $20 but the bill shows $25, I think you've been overcharged. (charge)
- 2 I think her mother is rather of her which is why she's not very independent. (protective)
- 3 I didn't get accepted to college this year but I'm not giving up, I'll next year. (apply)
- 4 This candidate has a PhD, I think they're a little for the job as an office clerk. (qualified)
- 5 Nick always loved reading comics as a child, I can't believe he's that now. (grow)
- 6 I think our company should paid overtime rather than giving us time off for working late. (introduce)
- 7 I think there has been a big about exactly what this project entails, so I'll explain it again. (understanding)
- 8 This office looks so now, it really is time it was refurbished. (dated)
- 9 The lettuce was ruined by the storm, so we had to it and it's almost ready for picking now. (grow)
- 10 Why do you think this particular product is all the others? (sell)

1

2

- 2 slipped my mind
- 3 discrepancy
- 4 fabricated
- 5 flashbacks
- 6 was planted / had been planted
- 7 make sense of
- 8 vague
- 9 was triggered
- 10 the gist

3

- 2 misled
- 3 inconsiderate
- 4 disrespectful
- 5 unprofessional
- 6 underpaid
- 7 undercooked
- 8 reconsidering

4

- 2 overprotective
- 3 reapply
- 4 overqualified
- 5 outgrown
- 6 reintroduce
- 7 misunderstanding
- 8 outdated
- 9 regrow
- 10 outselling