To: MikeD@abcnet.com
Subject: Tips for Tokyo

Hi Mike, how are you? I'm OK. I'm always very busy at work, but I like my new job. How's your job at Telefónica?

So, you've got a work trip to Tokyo? Great! It's a good city to visit. Here is some information to help you in Tokyo.

[1]Take the metro. It's not expensive, and the Tokyo metro is big. There are stations everywhere. Taxis are expensive. Don't take them.

[2]Visit Asakusa. There's a beautiful temple there. Also, [3]go to Harajuku Park on a Sunday. There are lots of interesting people there – take your camera!

Try Japanese food. [4]Go to an izakaya (a Japanese café) and eat some gyoza. [5]Drink some sake or green tea.

[6]Take a coat. Tokyo is cold in January.

Mike, have you got a hotel? I live in the Shinjuku area. It's in the centre of Tokyo. Come and stay with me?

Take care and see you soon!

Sick of shared house living

I live with my best friend, Melissa. She's a great friend, but she isn't a great person to live with! I start work early every morning and I go to bed early. Melissa works for a music website. She works at home and doesn't get up early. Every night she watches TV and calls her friends. She always goes to bed late. And she isn't quiet! She sings and dances and I can't sleep.

She never does jobs around the house. I always clean up the living room and clean the bathroom. She can cook good food and she makes cakes, but she never cleans the kitchen or washes the dishes. Sometimes, she does the washing, but I usually do it. At the weekend, Melissa swims or goes to the cinema or has lunch in a restaurant. I always go to the supermarket and buy food!

We've got a dog, Perrito, but Melissa never walks him or feeds him! Sometimes I ask her to walk the dog, but she always says she can't.

What can I do? Melissa's my friend, but I can't live with her!

Jobs around the house

I'm Abby. I live with my friends Alice and Eduardo. We all work in a school from Monday to Friday. Alice and I are teachers and Eduardo works in the school office. At 5 o'clock in the evening, we finish work and go home. Alice and I feed and walk our dog and Eduardo makes dinner at 6 o'clock. After dinner, I wash the dishes and Alice cleans the kitchen. We watch some TV and go to bed at half past 10 at night. At the weekend, we all do jobs around the house. On Saturdays, Eduardo cleans the floors, Alice cleans the bathroom and I clean the living room. I take the dog for a walk in the afternoon and Eduardo and Alice go to the supermarket. On Sunday mornings, we do the washing. In the afternoon, we make our lunches for the next week.

MY HOME TOWN – NOW AND THEN

My family is from a small island in the Mediterranean Sea. We live in a town in the east of the island. It's a big town – 50,000 people live here. Lots of people come here on holiday every year and in July and August it is very busy. There are lots of big hotels and high buildings. There are lots of cars and taxis. It is very hot in July and August – there's never a cloud in the sky! You can swim in the sea and walk in the mountains.

In 1930, when my grandmother was young, the town was very different – there were only 10,000 people here. Now you can fly here, but in 1930 there weren't any planes to the island. There were only slow boats. There were two boats every week. There weren't a lot of buildings and there were fields and trees around the town. There were no hotels and there was only one restaurant. There weren't lots of cars and taxis on the roads. In 1930, this was a quiet town and there were only Spanish people here. Now there are lots of people from different countries.

Reading

1 Read the story. Was it a good or bad day for Peter?

Peter usually got up at 6 a.m. because he started work at 8, but today was different. He got up at 10, and he had a slow breakfast at the kitchen table. He ate eggs and bread, and drank hot coffee. He didn't watch the TV, he didn't listen to the radio. It was quiet.

He usually took the bus with all the other people, or sometimes the car, but today he didn't take the bus and he didn't drive. He walked to the park. He met his friend. They usually ran in the park, but today Peter didn't want to run. They went for a walk, then his friend bought lunch. They spoke for a long time. Later, Peter went home and he sat in his garden. He listened to the birds.

Today Peter didn't break anything. He didn't forget a meeting. He didn't go to a busy restaurant. He didn't lose his phone on the bus. It was a good day.

2 Read the story again. Make a list of the regular past verbs and irregular past verbs.

Writing

1a Look at the photos. Where do you think the places are?

b Read the text. Which place in Exercise 1a did the family go to on holiday?

My favourite holiday was in Spain in 2017. We went to Malaga. It's a small city in the south of Spain. We stayed there for two weeks. I went with my family – my parents, my brother Toni and my sister, Clara.

We stayed in a nice hotel near the sea. Every morning we went to a café for breakfast – the coffee was so good! Then, we went to the beach and relaxed.

On the last day, it rained so we went shopping. After breakfast, we took a bus to the shops and bought lots of things. In the afternoon, we visited the Picasso Museum. In the evening, we were tired and went to bed early!

It was a great holiday. We forgot our problems. After the holiday I felt sad. I often think about Malaga.

2a Read the Focus box. Then answer the questions in the box about the text in Exercise 1.

Planning your writing

Before you write a description of an event in the past, think about your answers to these questions:

- What was the event?
- When was it?
- Where was it?
- Who was there?
- What happened?
- Why was the event good/bad?
- How did people feel after the event?

Use times expressions and sequence adverbs to help describe the story:

In the morning, we took a train to Morocco.*
Then, we walked in the park.*
After lunch, we sang songs.*

b Underline the time expressions in the text in Exercise 1.

3 Put the text in the correct order.

1 a We had a bad weekend last year in New York. On the first ___ b We went to Little Italy for lunch, and we had a nice pizza. In the ___ c we went to bed.

___ d After breakfast we walked in the city, but the weather was really bad.

___ e In the evening we were tired. We had dinner in the hotel, and then ___ f day we had breakfast in the hotel. The food wasn't good.

___ g afternoon we went to Macey's department store, but we didn't buy anything.

Prepare

4 You're going to write about a holiday you took. First, look at the questions and make notes.

- What was the event?
- When was it?
- Where was it?
- Who was there?
- What happened?
- Why was the event good/bad?
- How did people feel after the event?

Write

5 Write about your holiday. Use the notes you made in Exercise 4 to help you.

Things I like!

Jim Robertson lives in Inverness in the north of Scotland, but he cycles all around the world. Last year he rode his bike 4,000 miles around the UK. He tells us why he loves cycling.

1 I started cycling in 2005 because I got a new job and started cycling to work. My office wasn't near my house and the bus was expensive, so I decided to cycle. At first it was difficult because I didn't do a lot of exercise and I wasn't fast. But I started to enjoy cycling to work and I started cycling at the weekend, too. Then, one summer I took my bike on holiday and cycled from the north to the south of Italy. It was a really good holiday and I loved cycling anywhere I wanted to go.

2 I love travelling and visiting new places. You can go places by bike that you can't visit by car or train. It's a cheap, clean and healthy type of transport. It's also quick. My cycle to work takes 20 minutes and the bus takes 30. I can stay in bed for an extra ten minutes each morning!

3 Nothing! I love everything about it.

Writing

1 Read about Marta and Jan. Answer the questions with M (Marta) or J (Jan).

Marta

I like learning English because I love travelling and meeting new people. I can speak to people from all over the world in English. I usually watch British films and listen to music in English because I can learn lots of new words. But I don't like studying grammar because I think it's boring.

Jan

I like learning other languages because it's interesting and fun! I can speak English and Italian as well as Polish. I speak Italian every day because I work for an Italian company and some people in my office don't speak Polish. I speak English at home because my wife is British and she can't speak Polish.

Who ...?

1 thinks studying grammar is boring? ____
2 can speak three languages? ____
3 speaks English at home? ____
4 likes travelling and meeting new people? ____
5 watches British films? ____
6 works for an Italian company? ____

2 Read the Focus box and choose the correct alternatives.

Using because

Use because to give a reason.

4 My sister loves music. _____ always goes to concerts.
5 My friend, David, lives in Hong Kong. I'm going to visit _____ in the summer.
6 I've got lots of American films. I love watching _____ .

5 Correct the sentences.

1 In the summer holidays, I'm going to go to Italy with my friend. ~~They~~ are going to take the boat.
... We are going to take the boat.
2 I can't speak Spanish, but I'm going to study her next year.
3 Dan loves music, but she can't sing!
4 My parents live in New York. I'm going to visit us next year.
5 Jane and I lived together for two years. They had a flat in the centre of Madrid.
6 Sam made pizza last night. She was great!

6 Choose the correct alternatives.

In the summer holidays, I'm going to do lots of things. First, I'm going to work in a restaurant. [1] It / He is a small Thai restaurant near my house. Then, I'm going to visit my parents. [2] They / You live in London. I'm going to stay with [3] them / they for three days. Then I'm going to travel to Spain to see my sister. [4] She / Her lives in Barcelona. I'm going to stay with [5] her / him for two weeks and [6] we / us are going to visit interesting places and go to the beach.

Prepare

7 Make notes about what you're going to do next summer.

What? Where? Who with?

I'm going to visit my friends in Cambridge. We're going to take a boat on the river.

Write

8 Write a message for an online discussion about your plans for the summer. Use your notes from Exercise 7 and the Focus box to help you.

I'm a doctor at a hospital. I usually work from Monday to Friday, but I sometimes work on Saturdays and Sundays, too. I always get up at 7 o'clock. I have breakfast with my family and then I go to work at 8 o'clock. I usually cycle to work, but sometimes I take the bus. I never drive to work. I arrive at the hospital at 8.30. At 1 o'clock I have lunch. I often go to a café and I always have a cheese sandwich, a salad and a big cup of tea. The food is good, but the café is usually busy. I usually go home at 6.30, but sometimes I go to the gym first. At 8 o'clock I have dinner with my family. Then we often watch TV. I usually go to bed at 10 o'clock.

- What was the event?
  A holiday in Malaga.
- When was it?
  2017
- Where was it?
  Malaga, South of Spain
- Who was there?
  The writer's family – parents, brother and sister
- What happened?
  They had breakfast in a café; they went to the beach; they visited places in Malaga.
- Why was the event good/bad?
  It was good because they forgot problems and they relaxed.
  How did people feel after the event?
  The writer felt sad because the holiday was finished.

My favourite holiday was in Spain in 2017. We went to Malaga. It's a small city in the south of Spain. We stayed there for two weeks. I went with my family – my parents, my brother Toni and my sister, Clara.
We stayed in a nice hotel near the sea. Every morning we went to a café for breakfast – the coffee was so good! Then, we went to the beach and relaxed.
On the last day, it rained so we went shopping. After breakfast, we took a bus to the shops and bought lots of things. In the afternoon, we visited the Picasso Museum. In the evening, we were tired and went to bed early!
It was a great holiday. We forgot our problems. After the holiday, I felt sad. I often think about Malaga.
